State Will Test Bus Law; Hearings to Begin in May

Francis Elizabeth Pastore, 18-year-old daughter of Sen. and Mrs. John O. Pastore of Rhode Island, is kissed by her parents after she was chosen in Washington to be Queen of the 1962 National Cherry Blossom Festival. Selection was made by the spin of a wheel bearing names of states. Miss Pastore will be crowned today at the Cherry Blossom Coronation Pageant.

Chief Peter Clark Resigns at Menasha

Capt. Cyril Walbrun Also to Leave Police Department

MENASHA — Police Chief Peter P. Clark, who two weeks ago was cleared of nine counts of improper conduct in office, submitted his resignation to the Menasha police and fire commission Friday.

Chief Peter P. Clark

Also resigning is Capt. Cyril Walbrun. Clark's resignation is effective July 1; Walbrun will leave his post April 23. The resignations were submitted at a special meeting of the commission.

The commission voted unanimously to write letters of appreciation to both men for their service. Chief Clark, a resident of Menasha since 1913, joined the force April 1, 1935. From 1938 to 1945, Clark was assigned as a squad car driver. In the summer of 1945 he became assistant chief and became acting chief Jan. 30, 1948, serving in that post for 17 months until the retirement of the late Chief George Resch. On June 24, 1949, the commission named Clark chief.

Walbrun joined in 1937. Capt. Walbrun, a native of Menasha, became a Menasha policeman June 16, 1937. He was promoted to sergeant Sept. 1, 1958, and to captain July 9, 1959. Wal-

Case Dropped, Court Unable to Seat Jury

SNEEDVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The preacher said he had to preach a funeral. Teachers said they had to teach. But most said flatly they were prejudiced.

So, unable to seat a jury after five days, Circuit Court Judge Wayne Oliver dismissed murder charges Friday against two men accused in the slaying of two deputy sheriffs.

Most of those who were turned down said merely that they had formed an opinion in the case. There was no way to determine how many favored the state or how many favored the defendants. Lawyers believed it a precedent in state legal history and perhaps in the nation.

27 Persons Fined Only two jurors had been selected from 1,400 citizens—practically every adult in this small mountain village—for the trial of Carl Myers, 39, and James Horton, 19. State troopers had been ordered onto the streets to find prospective jurors. Twenty-seven veniremen were fined up to $25 for failing to answer court summonses.

Steel Union, 10 Producers Sign Contract

Hope Expressed For Strike-Free Era in Industry

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The United Steelworkers Union and 10 State Department of Administration formally signed new labor contracts Friday and the union immediately expressed hope that a strike-free era was beginning in the basic steel industry.

The eleventh steel firm—Great Lakes Steel Corp.—postponed its formal signing until today. A spokesman said company and union officials met until early morning, ironing out the mechanics of the contract, and were too exhausted to continue the formalities.

USW President David J. McDonald, the chief union negotiator during the bargaining sessions, described the two-year pact as historic.

He said he was hopeful the contract would lead to the elimination of basic steel strikes forever.

Benefits Provided Although there is no wage increase in the pact, workers will receive improvements in job security and unemployment benefits estimated to be worth 10 cents an hour. The contract runs until June of 1964 with a possible reopening of talks in the second year.

U.S. Steel Corp., the nation's leading steel manufacturer, was the first company to sign the new pact.

R. Conrad Cooper, vice president of U.S. Steel and the chief industry negotiator, signed his firm's contract along with McDonald.

Cooper commented that the spirit of cooperation expressed by both sides was the most outstanding feature of the negotiations.

The other companies followed U.S. Steel after first meeting to discuss certain individual characteristics of their contracts. They included Bethlehem Steel, Pittsburgh Steel, Youngstown Sheet & Tube, Jones & Laughlin, Armco, Republic Iron & Steel, Inland Steel, Wheeling Steel and Colorado Fuel & Iron.

Guerrillas Strike at Outpost in Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Communist guerrillas in battalion strength attacked the government outpost of Tra Bong in central Viet Nam and were beaten off in fierce fighting.

Government sources said at least 37 rebels, including two artillery company commanders, were killed and many wounded.

Reports reaching here said the battle flared at Tra Bong, about 330 miles from Saigon, late Thursday night with the Communists making repeated attacks on the outpost defended by a company of army troops. The defenders reportedly suffered three dead and five wounded.

Nelson Expects Decision By June on Controversial Bill Affecting 52,000

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — Bus rides for approximately 52,000 parochial school children paid partially by state funds will be the subject of a state supreme court hearing in May.

The court announced late Friday it will take original jurisdiction in the case brought by the State Department of Administration to test the constitutional validity of the legislature's act proposing to legalize the transportation of parochial and other non-public school children in tax-supported public school buses.

Oral arguments in the case scheduled for May 4 and a decision is anticipated by June.

Total cost to state and local school districts is estimated at some $4 million annually with the state paying about $1.5 million.

The question of the law's validity was submitted to the high court by Atty. Gen. John Reynolds at the request of Gov. Gaylord Nelson who signed the bill Jan. 26.

Friendly Law Suit

Termed a "friendly law suit", the case will clear all doubts about the legislation which has troubled local school officials who will be obliged to adjust their transportation and possibly their instruction schedules for the new fall term. Additional drivers and the purchase or lease of new vehicles may be needed also.

The case will center about the state constitution article which provides that money shall not be drawn from the treasury for the benefit of "religious societies or religious or theological seminaries."

It is presumed the court will decide whether the use of public funds to transport private school children benefits the school or the pupil.

A report presented to the court says that some pupils in about 500 non-public schools would be eligible for bus rides under the new law. There are between 850 and 875 non-public high school and elementary schools in the state, with nearly 300,000 students.

When he submitted the case to the supreme court in March, Reynolds termed prompt determination of the law's validity "urgently necessary." His suit names Commissioner Joe Nussbaum of the State Department of Administration as defendant. Nussbaum refused to act on a request for printing needed to administer the law, thus bringing the case before the court.

Nelson has appointed the Milwaukee law firm of Foley, Sammond and Lardner to represent Nussbaum. The firm named Marvin E. Klitsner to argue the case.

French to Vote On Algiers Plan

De Gaulle Expects To Receive Strong Support at Polls

PARIS (AP) — French voters are expected to give the massive approval President Charles de Gaulle seeks when they ballot in Sunday's referendum ratifying peace accords paving the way for Algerian independence.

Some observers predicted up to 90 per cent of the voters would favor the cease-fire.

But several big political parties have refused to accept De Gaulle's contention that approval of the accord would mean endorsement of his past actions and a mandate to go ahead as he sees fit.

Reds Favor Peace

The Communists and socialists have strongly favored peace in Algeria, but they insist their votes cannot be considered approval of De Gaulle's policies in other fields.

Despite the cease-fire blood was being shed in Algeria. At least 10 persons were killed within three hours today in separate terrorist attacks on Algiers and Oran.

The two-week campaign for the accords has stirred little interest in France, mainly because few political leaders or groups have dared come out against the appealing prospect of peace.

Within three to six months, residents of Algeria will be called on to vote in a referendum on whether they want to become an independent nation or retain the present relationship with France. It is generally expected they will vote for independence. The 9-1 majority of the Moslems over Europeans in Algeria seems to assure the result.

Who Spilled the Beans From Relief Agency?

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — "They're our beans all right," a relief official said after several bushels of navy beans were found dumped at two housing developments.

James Murphy, administrative assistant in the county welfare department in charge of free food distribution, said: "It means that the welfare recipients either got tired of beans, or more likely, the bottom has dropped out of the black market in free welfare food when it comes to beans."

By the black market, he meant a practice by which recipients taking welfare food to the stores and trying to trade it for other food.

Byrnes Hits Kennedy's 'Priming'

President's Request For $600 Million Program Not Sound

BY FRANCES MEKUSICK
Post-Crescent Staff Writer
WASHINGTON — Rep. John W. Byrnes, R., Green Bay, today questioned the "soundness" of President Kennedy's request for a $600 million "pump - priming" public works program in economically depressed areas.

The Wisconsin congressman, during an interview, pointed out that "we already have in operation an urban renewal program," which, he added a little caustically, was supposed to take care of unemployment in these depressed areas.

Commenting that present conditions hardly seemed to justify the WPA treatment, Byrnes added, "I wonder what the administration will want if we ever do have a real recession."

He believes that even though our current economy is not on the scale of sustained improvement that the President predicted it would be this year, the outlay of more than a half a billion dollars is neither necessary nor corrective.

Magic Spending
"This approach simply epitomizes the philosophy that Federal spending has a magic not shared by the same amount of money before it is taken away from the country either in taxes or by the sale of bonds which are needed to make up for the deficit the expenditure of government funds has caused," he complained.

Since Byrnes is the chairman of the GOP Policy committee in the House, his views on the new public works program no doubt will be reflected in the vote of the Republican membership. Capitol observers believe that in this instance, many Southern Democrats will join forces with their colleagues on the other side of the political aisle in an attempt to stem the tide of further Federal spending.

Institute Physics Chief Finishes Fulbright Studies

Dr. J. A. Van den Akker, head of the physics department at The Institute of Paper Chemistry has returned from six months of lecturing and other activity as a Fulbright Senior Scholar at the University of Manchester, England.

Lectures by Van den Akker at the university were in a course on the physics of paper, and were given to a mixed group of third-year honor students (equivalent to college seniors in the U. S.), graduate students, and university staff members.

He also presented a lecture on "Trends in American Education of Scientists" in the university's General Studies program. Other informal meetings were held with the university's staff, students, and technical personnel in the Manchester area.

Concurrent with his duties at the university, Van den Akker visited paper company research laboratories in England and Scotland, presented talks to the Scotland and Manchester divisions of the technical section of the British paper and board industry, and by arrangement of the U. S. educational commissions in Norway and the United Kingdom, held a technical conference at the University of Norway in Trondheim.

Outagamie Gets $307,596 Check For State Aids

Outagamie County this month received $307,596.39 in aids from the State of Wisconsin, Treasurer R. A. Bentz, said.

Bentz said the funds consist of $801 for aid to needy Indians, $10,837 for tuberculosis outpatients, $30,227.12 for the tuberculosis sanatorium and $265,610 for aid to the county mental hospital.

The funds for the sanatorium and mental hospital are the first payments for the year. This year the mental hospital will receive $335,937 and the sanatorium will receive $71,190.95.

Bentz said the state pays the county as funds become available.

Clark is the senior captain of the police force.

Commission President George Lenz said the chief's resignation, was signed Friday night in the presence of Clark's family and himself. "I wish Pete all the luck in the world in his retirement."

The commission voted to give the city clerk, unopened, a large

Police Chief Clark this morning commented that he and Capt. Walbrun together had 52 years of police service. "I'm glad his and my resignations were announced at the same time. He's an old standby and we worked together for a long time."

"My retirement was not forced. I waited until I had my hearing where charges were filed. One minor charge was sustained. On the rest I was found innocent. I owed this to the citizens of Menasha and to show that I could retire when I wanted after I was found innocent. I wanted to show my family I was innocent and always wanted to retire on my own."

the chief. He was cleared on all but one charge and the commission ruled no disciplinary action was warranted.

Along with Clark's retirement, the commission accepted a copy of an order from Circuit Judge Raymond Rahr dissolving the temporary injunction Clark secured against the commission, barring its employment of a new chief. With the court order was a stipulation agreeing to the dismissal, signed by Lenz, Atty. Charles Wildermuth, who was Clark's counsel, and City Atty. Richard J. Steffens.

The commission went into executive session to resume considering candidates for the police chief's job. The process had been suspended while Clark's legal action against the commission was in force.

Identical Twins Held On Burglary Charge

NEW YORK (AP) — Identical twins, with identical criminal records, were held in $7,500 bail each in court on burglary charges.

The twins, Irvin and Edward Lichtman, 21, dressed identically in court, were accused Friday of breaking into an apartment and stealing a television set, jewelry and cash, with an over-all value of $2,000.

Police said the twins, both truck drivers, previously had been arrested together four times since 1959—three times on narcotics charges and once on a robbery charge. They were sentenced to one six-month jail term. Both were released last April.

Johnson, Humphrey Shooting for Presidential Nomination in 1968

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Two of the chief rivals of John F. Kennedy for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination are making it fairly obvious that they have not yet surrendered their hopes for the biggest prize in politics.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, who carried with him to Los Angeles in 1960 the affections of a strong faction of the Wisconsin Democratic party, and Vice President Lyndon Johnson are shooting for the 1968 nomination, according to a widely accepted view here.

Sign of their private planning, as signs are read in this politically sensitive city, is their willingness to travel about the country and otherwise to build up their reputations and acquaintance with local party men. If Johnson holds the vice presidency for two terms, the reasoning goes, he can largely eradicate his identity as a regional candidate, and more particularly, a Southern candidate, that was so damaging to his aspiration two years ago.

Rep. Alvin O'Konski of Mercer, a Republican who views goings-on here with a sophisticated born of a 20 year tenure, with characteristic irreverence acknowledges that Humphrey and Johnson continue to hope for their party's nomination, but insists that they hope in vain.

In 1968 the nominee of the Democrats will be Bobby Kennedy, he grins, and next will come younger brother Teddy. After that, Caroline will be old enough for a political career, he goes on, repeating a wisecrack that is likely to be heard from many a Republican campaign stump this year.

O'Konski continues to hit hard in criticism of the call-up of Wisconsin National Guardsmen and reservists, and in a recent mass mailing to Wisconsin men recalling for military training predicted flatly that they will be released "not later than Labor Day."

Marion Czarnecki, a veteran Milwaukee politician who came to Washington to work for Rep. Clement Zablocki 12 years ago, is now a staff employee of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the House of Representatives. On a recent study trip to Poland he found two Polish orphans who were adopted by himself and his wife.

The job-seeking pressure of Democrats upon the New Frontier remains terrific. This reporter expressed curiosity about the caution of secretaries answering calls at the Democratic National Committee headquarters and their insistence upon knowing the name and the business of those telephoning. The reason, one friendly source admitted, is that committee staff officers are besieged with hungry patronage hunters and in self-defense must ask who is calling before they will pick up the telephone.

There are Democrats and then there are what is known as "Kennedy people" in this national administration. The latter are those who backed up the President early in his drive for the presidency, and their party histories are not as important as their personal relations. They run heavily to family friends, schoolmates, New Englanders and "coordinators" of the long and careful campaign that was climaxed when the nomination plum was won.

One of the most exclusive of the new clubs in this enormously clubby city is the "New Frontier Club." Estimated eligible membership, a coveted 50 places.

A Wisconsin politician whose credentials at the New Frontier are in splendid order is Patrick J. Lucey, the head of the state Democratic Party organization and an early booster for JFK.

It is said that only the head of the West Virginia party machine, which was also involved in a politically important pre-convention delegate primary in 1960, has the friendly regard of

Conservation Engineer Retires

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — Retirement of L. W. Lembeck, head of the mechanical engineering division of the state conservation commission, has been announced by the state conservation commission which has sent him a resolution of commendation for his state service spanning 31 years.

Lembeck, who has held high offices in professional societies, is 63 years of age and was born in Outagamie County and educated in schools at Oconto Falls and the University of Wisconsin.

Telephone Company Plans $20 Million Issue of Debentures

MADISON (AP) — The Wisconsin Telephone Co. of Milwaukee was given preliminary approval by the State Public Service Commission of a plan to issue $20 million in 40-year debentures.

Funds raised by the issue will be used to repay advances to the firm by its parent company, American Telephone and Telegraph Co. The debentures will be backed by Wisconsin Telephone's income.

Final approval awaits determination of issue price and interest rate by competitive bidding. The commission noted Wisconsin Telephone has been carrying on a substantial construction program, with 1962 improvement and expansion costs estimated at $48 million.

military. Ecuador's armed forces chiefs also forced Arosemena to reshuffle his Cabinet to exclude leftists and to swing his policies to the right.

Defense Minister Francisco Tamariz said the leader of a pro-Castro faction, identified as Jorge Rivandeneira, was among the 30 insurgents seized with large stores of arms near Santo Domingo de los Colorados, 45 miles west of Quito.

Red Agitators Busy
Communist agitators have long been active in the hinterlands of Ecuador, a country of 4 million on the northwest coast of South America with severe economic and political problems.

Informed sources said a steady stream of guns made behind the non curtain have been smuggled across Ecuador's Pacific beaches for use by troublemakers.

Communist propaganda flowed into the countryside after reportedly being brought into the country in Cuban diplomatic pouches. Informants said the Czech embassy bankrolled Ecuador's Communist party. These were some of the reasons the military insisted Arosemena break ties with Cuba, Poland and Czechoslovakia, the informants said.

'Gung Ho' College Girl Tries Mother's Patience Over Dress

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Our daughter is in her second year of college. Her favorite outfit is a pair of faded blue jeans (cut off just below the knee with the edges left ragged), an old beat-up sweat shirt (in the largest size she could find) and a pair of disreputable tennis shoes with broken laces.

She goes around like this everywhere, except to classes (which they would not allow) and on dates. I'm sick and tired of seeing her look so sloppy and I've told her so. The slovenly dress habits she is developing now could drive a man to drink, later.

Her excuse is, "It's comfortable and I don't care how it looks." Please tell me what to do.—Birmingham Mother

Dear Mother: The sloppy look is part of gung ho college life on some campuses. It is seeded in rebellion and nurtured in the soil of independence.

My advice is to play blind and mute. "And this, too, shall pass."

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I read with interest the letter from the young girl who had epilepsy and refused to take her medication. I, too, began seizures in my late teens and I earnestly hope this girl develops some understanding of her illness because ignorance is her major handicap.

I remember how stubborn I was about taking medicine. It was, in a sense, my refusal to accept the fact that I was not "like everyone else." Now I know that epilepsy is ten times more common than polio. I know, too, that epilepsy has nothing to do with insanity, intelligence or being possessed by the devil. It is not inherited. It is not contagious. It is not fatal. And it is rarely handicapping.

I am now 41, married to a fine man and we have three children. I've been driving a car for five years and my illness does not limit me in any way. Medication has made a normal life possible.

I hope the father of this girl will contact the local epilepsy agency. If there is none, he can write to The United Epilepsy Association, 113 West 57th Street, New York 19, New York. If the girl is mildly receptive, the literature they provide will do the rest.

—Mrs. M. J. of Bakersfield

DEAR ANN: I had a child out of wedlock before I met my husband. I gave this child to my brother and his wife. They legally adopted him and he is the light of their life. Before we married I told my husband about this child and he asked me to get my boy back. I refused, saying I had a moral obligation to stick to my decision. I thought that ended it.

We now have a baby of our own but my husband is still not satisfied. He tells me either I get the boy back or he will leave me. Every argument ends up the same way. He promises me if I do as she says we will never have any trouble again.

I need your advice fast.—S.L.O.

Dear S.L.O.: Your husband probably wants to leave and is looking for an excuse. If you do this terrible thing he'll find another reason to leave.

Tell him the decision to give the boy up was yours and it has nothing to do with him. He has no right to ask you to try to unwind it.

If alcohol is robbing you or someone you love of health and dignity, send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Help For The Alcoholic," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Finesse Can Ruin Good Hand

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD

"You bridge writers are all the same," a reader complains. "You're always advising us not to take finesse but when you play bridge yourself you probably finesse just as much as we do. Tell the truth, now, aren't you laying it on a bit too thick?"

Let's look at the record. This hand was played in the 1961 World Championship in Buenos Aires in a match between Argentina and the United States. Somebody took one finesse too many.

At the first table of the match, West led a spade, and East won with the queen. East returned a club, and South finessed with the queen, losing to the king. This was a fatal finesse.

Back came another spade, and declarer couldn't afford to go up with the ace. He played low from dummy and East won with the king.

Back came a club, and South was helpless. He needed a good diamond break to make sure of eight tricks, but this was still not enough for his contract.

At the other table of the match,

Saturday, April 7, 1962 Appleton Post-Crescent A3

Peter Leventritt played the South hand for the United States. He lost the first spade to the queen, but he put the ace of clubs at 100 points.

We don't have to dream up hands in which a foolish finesse is very costly. They happen regularly, even in world championships.

Partner opens with one spade, and the next player doubles. You hold: S K Q 9 2 H Q 6 D J 9 5 C 7 4 3 2. What do you say?

Answer: Bid three spades. This jump is a mild shutout, showing good trump support but very little else.

Our Children

Child's Happiness Not Lost When Disciplining

BY ANGELO PATRI

"My criticism," says a letter, "is your statement that the happiness of children comes first. I agree that child happiness should be considered, but training and development for future life comes first. I say this on the strength of my own early training and personal dealings with youngsters."

"A few moments of childhood were nothing compared with the lessons they should be taught. The first are completely forgotten but the impression made by discipline remains. To fail to embed in the child's mind the inviolate principle of mine and thine is to shirk the responsibility assumed when childhood is in one's care."

"Indelibly impressed on my mind is the manner in which my mother demonstrated her belief. One of the babies, a younger brother of mine, just about six months old, creeping across the room, stopped to reach for something on the lower shelf of a table. 'No, no, must not touch,' said mother. The baby waited until he saw mother wasn't looking and reached again. She immediately left what she was doing, went over and sat down beside him and again admonished, 'No, no, don't touch.' She made no attempt to force him. It was two hours by the clock before he gave up."

"He never tried that again. The lesson was learned. The experience of unpleasantness was lost in oblivion but the lesson of obedience remained firmly impressed on the child's mind. What matter a few wails, a few tears. When you see and hear a child say, 'My dad, my mother wouldn't stand for that,' you can be sure that there has been discipline back of that statement."

"Because I feel that the future destiny of this country lies with the home, because I deplore the prevailing laxity, I urge your consideration of the points I have brought out in my letter."

Yes! There is a must. But I maintain that happiness and discipline are not opposites. Happiness, obedience, training, love can and should go hand in hand. To allow the child to do as he pleases is not love, not discipline but indifference and never produced anything but misery and misbehavior.

Argument Over Dairy Price Supports

Gilbert C. Rohde, president of the Wisconsin Farmers Union, commenting upon the cut in dairy price support, defended Sec. of Agriculture Freeman, although some members of Congress hold that Freeman's interpretation of the law is responsible for the reduction. Rohde said, "All of us aware of the serious over-supply and the mounting government costs realize that the secretary of agriculture would be in a completely indefensible position if he were to go to Congress and explain why he established price supports higher than 75 per cent of parity in view of current conditions."

"In my opinion sole responsibility for this drop in dairy income rests with the agriculture committee members of the House and Senate who voted against the resolution to extend dairy price supports."

However, Rep. John W. Byrnes, R-Green Bay, in acknowledging that the secretary's order will bring hardship to the dairy farmer, suggests that the dairyman would be better off if they could get along without political intervention in the market. He suggests further that the remedies offered by Freeman and the Kennedy administration will be more political intervention and a demand for further regimentation of the dairy economy. Others have supported the view that pressure is now being applied to the dairy farmers to get them to accept strict production controls.

Rep. Byrnes in his recent letter to constituents provided a very interesting bit of history on the dairy price problem. He said, "In the latter part of 1960, after a lengthy and difficult period of adjustment, the price of milk was being determined in a relatively free market. For the first time in many years, the market price was above the government support level. Production of milk was only slightly in excess of demand at free market prices. Government stocks of dairy products were down to levels which, at times, created shortages in school lunch and foreign assistance food programs. The future of the dairy industry, after a much criticized regime of low support prices, looked bright."

But then Rep. Byrnes points out the government intervened. As election was coming up Congress raised milk support prices from $3.06 to $3.22. Mr. Byrnes recalls that he renounced this bill as "political tinkering with a market" which needed freedom from Congressional intervention. Later, in April, 1961, under the Kennedy administration, the price was boosted from $3.22 to $3.40. And Mr. Byrnes says, "This latter move could not be justified on the basis of law as Sec. of Agriculture Freeman now interprets it. That is, any increase in supports must be based on the need to insure an adequate supply."

Rep. Byrnes points to the effect of this boost in support prices noting that "in this dairy year, the government has purchased 405 million pounds of butter compared with 144 million pounds in this same period last year; 165 million pounds of cheese compared with 197 thousand pounds in 1960 and 1,241,206 pounds of nonfat dry milk compared with 789,167 last year. At the same time the production of milk was up 2 million pounds in 1961 over 1960, a 2 per cent gain."

Mr. Byrnes says that the production in December was up 3 per cent more than the previous record high in 1960 and 11 per cent above the 1958-59 average. Consumption, through commercial channels in 1960, was down compared with 1959.

Another reason why dairy farmers cannot afford to entrust their case to Congress is that the heavy producing states with a surplus of milk for manufacturing purposes are comparatively few. The big surplus of milk comes largely from Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa. Most other milk producing states have protected markets for their full production.

Thus when the surplus milk producers seek help in Congress they have at most six senators and 30 or 40 representatives. That would be sufficient perhaps if their demands were not in conflict with those from many other states with small production and protected markets. Congressmen and senators in nearly every state from Wisconsin eastward to the Atlantic have dairy farmers with protected markets.

Now the Wisconsin dairymen are being asked to put the fate of their business in the hands of Congress where they know they cannot control it. In fact they must be aware that in many instances it will be controlled by representatives of their competitors.

BY D. HAROLD OLIVER

WASHINGTON (AP) — With spring has come the first robins of the 1962 primary election season. It will run from April 10 to Oct. 6 with Democratic campaigners praising the Kennedy administration record and Republicans contending they could do better.

Illinois and New Jersey hold the first primaries — in April — then come a rash of 14 primaries in May to select candidates for 9 U. S. Senate seats, 9 governorships, and 152 U. S. House membership. (see map)

At stake in the Nov. 6 elections will be 38 Senate seats in 36 states (2 each in Kansas and New Hampshire), 35 governorships, and 435 House memberships. Reapportionment cuts the house back to its normal 435 strength from the present 437.

Democrats now rule the roost in all three categories. Their margins over the opposition are 64-36 in the Senate, 34-16 in governorships, and 262-174 in the House. There is one House vacancy in South Carolina and it is expected to be filled by a democrat in a special election April 10.

The Grand Strategy

Here's the way spokesmen for the two parties see the grand strategy of the coming campaign:

Democrat: "Our strategy will be to point up the Kennedy administration record. We think in areas of two-party endeavor our candidates will say 'this is what the Kennedy administration has done for you and we want more Democrats in Congress so we can pass more of these measures.'"

Republican: "We expect to attack sharply Republican incumbents who have voted against the Kennedy proposals. For example, in areas where the feed grain bill raised farm income and helped out small towns, we think Republicans who voted against that bill are vulnerable."

"We have the same feeling about Republicans in city areas who voted against the proposal to create an urban affairs department, and against area redevelopment."

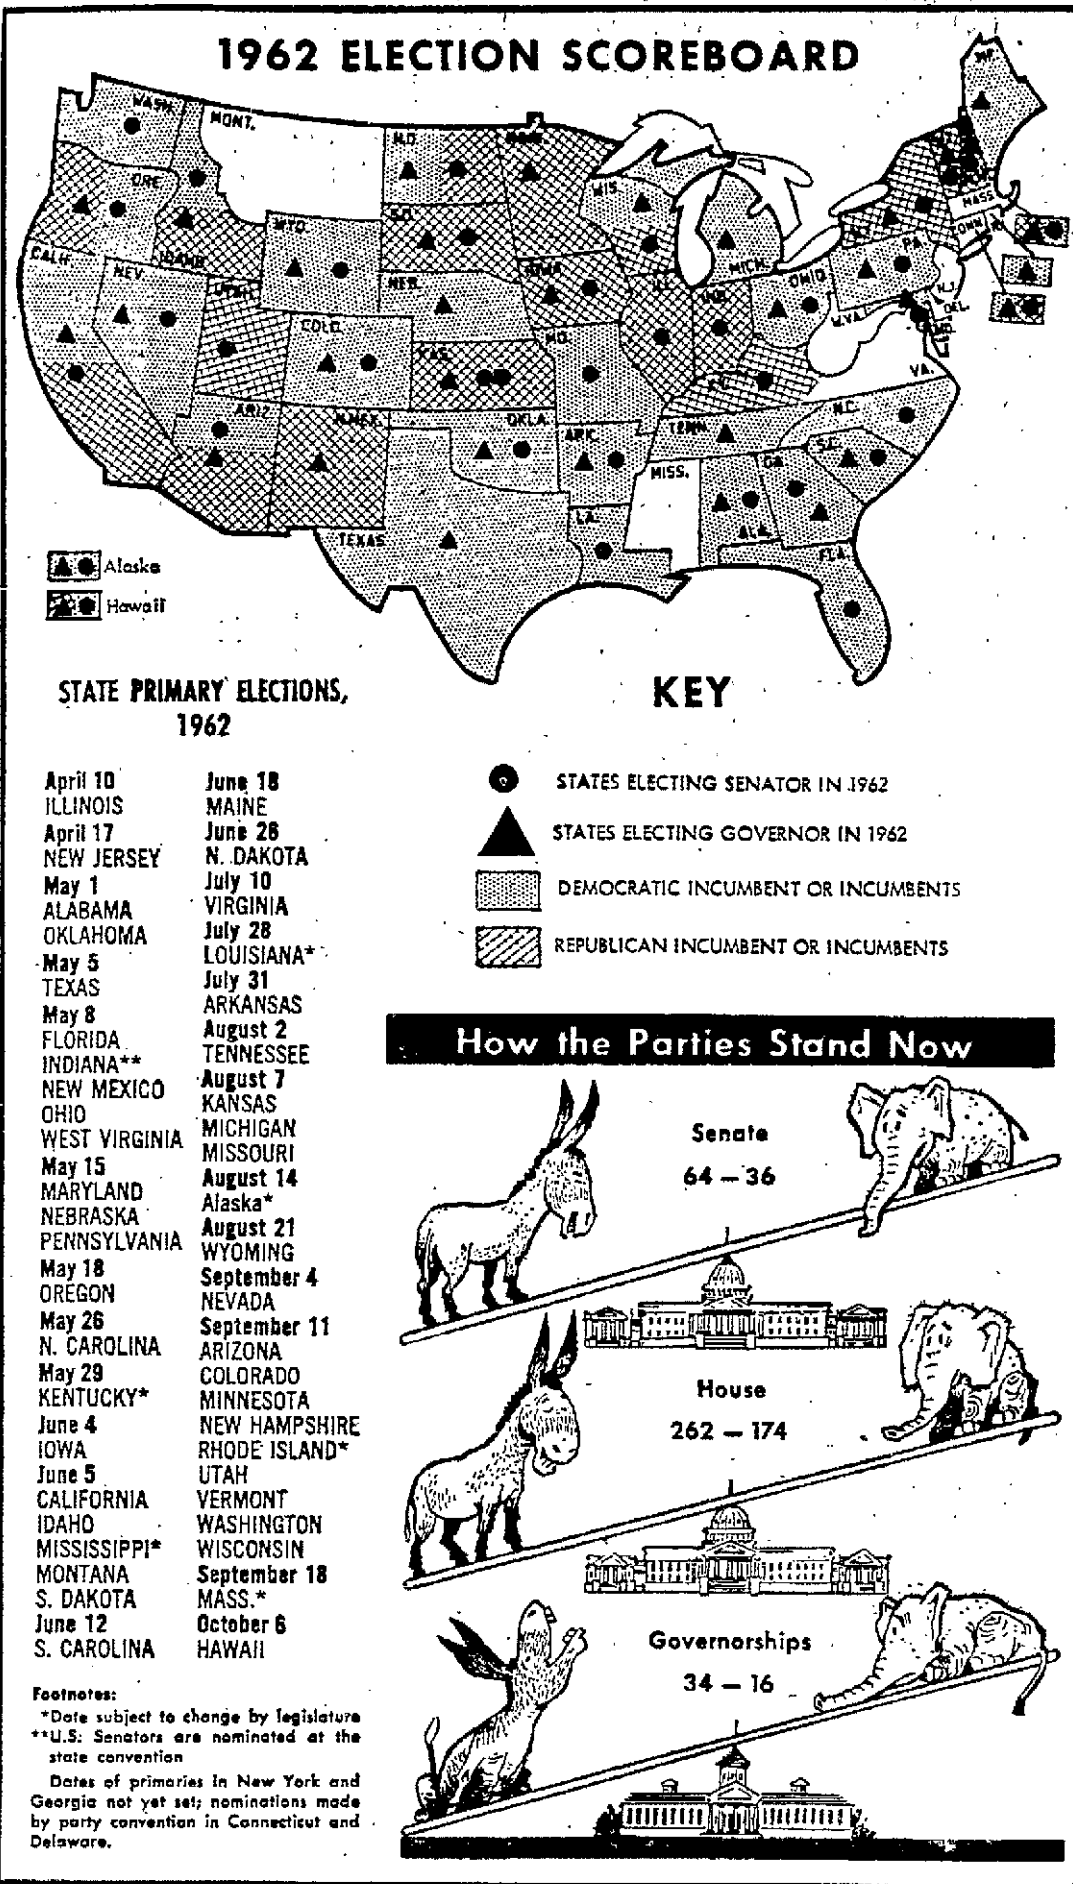

"Our biggest areas for new House seats will be in the mid-west and mountain states where we didn't do so well in 1960."

GOP Goal

Republican spokesman: "Our goal is to give Kennedy a Republican Congress (House) for his own good. Our campaign will point up the errors and omissions of his record to date."

"Control of the House (44 GOP net gain is needed) is attainable. We feel American prestige has fallen a lot lower since Kennedy began in 1960 to criticize it."

"We also feel that the emphasis year, to be held April 10 in Illinois, nominations will be made for one Senate and 24 House seats. Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen and Democratic Rep. Sidney R. Yates are favored to win Senate nominations handily. Yates is quitting the House to run for the Senate.

Three Republican House members are retiring in Illinois: Reps. Marguerite Stitt Church, Noah M. Mason and Robert Shipfield.

The state loses one House seat by redistricting, and the two parties differ as to which will come out with the smaller loss as a result.

New Jersey's April 17 primary will nominate only for 15 House seats. The state gains one by reapportionment and the Democrats expect to pick it up.

A few highlights on the May primaries:

Oklahoma (May 1). There are 12 candidates for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. Only two are seeking the GOP nomination.

Texas (May 5). A six-man race for the Democratic governorship nomination includes the incumbent Price Daniel, former secretary of the navy John Connally, and former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, who resigned his commission after being admonished by the army for allegedly mixing politics with military training.

Ohio (May 8). Of prime interest is the race for the Democratic nomination for governor between incumbent Michael V. DiSalle and State Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy of Cleveland.

Incumbent Sen. Frank J. Lausche has two Democratic primary opponents, and four Republicans are seeking the right to oppose the Democratic winner.

Pennsylvania (May 15). Candidates for governor, former Democratic Mayor Richardson Dilworth of Philadelphia, and Republican Rep. William W. Scranton have only taken opposition in the primaries.

Candidates for Senate nominations in the state are unopposed. They are Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D) and Rep. James E. Van Zandt (R). The big battles will come in November.

Kentucky (May 29). A hot race is coming up for the Democratic senatorial nomination between Lt. Gov. Wilson W. Wyatt and Harry King Lowman, speaker of the state house. Wyatt, the favorite, will have the backing of the administration of Democratic Gov. Bert T. Combs. Another faction is supporting Lowman.

Sen. Thurston B. Morton, incumbent Republican, has announced he will run for re-election. Both parties think the senatorial race will be a tight one.

Narcotics and Criminals

Gov. Rockefeller of New York has signed a bill to permit narcotics addicts, who are not hardened criminals, to be hospitalized rather than imprisoned when arrested for minor charges of use or possession of drugs.

This law represents a change in policy for New York which has had most severe laws to punish users, wholesalers and "pushers" of narcotics. Gov. Rockefeller says the new program should "save hundreds and ultimately thousands of young narcotics addicts from a life of enslavement to drugs." The law provides that addicts sent to hospitals also will receive a program of after-care to insure their rehabilitation. If the treatment proves successful, the charges may be dropped.

The legislation also provides for a central narcotics office in the mental hygiene department and establishes a state council on drug addiction to advise in the formulating of state policy on narcotics problems.

Many people long have entertained the notion that both alcoholism and narcotics addiction should be treated as illnesses rather than as crimes. Imprisoning alcoholics and drug addicts for a time after each arrest is a total failure. Something more is necessary and it is encouraging to hear of New York attempting to do something about it.

sis placed by the administration on publicity and public relations has been all out of proportion to the accomplishments they are boasting about."

Elaborating on the House situation, the GOP spokesman said: "The House is the big focal point of our campaign. We have great hopes of increasing our strength in the South. We fully intend to hold our gains in the Midwest and add to them."

Without knowing in advance of the primaries who some of the candidates are going to be, both spokesmen agreed the Nov. 6 contests holding the greatest interest will include those for governor in California, New York and Michigan, and Senate races in Massachusetts, Kentucky and Pennsylvania.

The Republican added Oklahoma to the list of important governor contests. The Democrat added to the list Senate races in California, Connecticut, Illinois and Utah.

Dirksen Favored

Needless to say the two spokesmen disagreed on the outcome of the major races. In the first primary of the

Asian Newspapermen Learn of Great Future of a Free Press

BY ALBERT RAVENHOLT

Chicago Daily News Foreign Service

MANILA — Free Asia is on the threshold of an enormous expansion in newspaper readership as the press in these emerging nations shifts to publishing in their vernacular languages.

But only a radical improvement in the professional standards of Asian newspapermen can make this a tool for fortifying democratic practices among more than a billion citizens in these countries.

These are among the findings of 25 Asian editors who have just completed a working seminar here.

This thoroughly professional assembly was organized by the International Press Institute headquartered in Zurich, Switzerland.

It is an association of 1,500 editors in 48 countries devoted to protecting press freedom and improving performance among themselves. Its Asian program is patterned on seminars held by the American Press Institute at Columbia University, New York.

Play Crucial Role

Europeans and Americans accustomed to a free press barely can appreciate fully the crucial role of vigorous newspapers in building new nations.

Yet as editors gathered here dissected the sorry history of the curtailment of freedom in Ceylon, Indonesia and elsewhere, it became evident that the failure of newspapers to reach and report the lives of ordinary Asian citizens facilitated the totalitarian rule that eventually also crippled the press itself.

Opportunities and responsibilities awaiting the press in Asia are suggested by a few figures. All 40 odd daily newspapers in Pakistan have a total circulation of only 300,000 among 96,000,000 citizens. India with a population of 440,000,000 circulates 4,500,000 newspapers daily.

This contrasts with Japan where 37,000,000 copies of newspapers are sold daily in a population of 94,500,000.

Picture Changing

But there are indications that this picture is beginning to change in South and Southeast Asia.

Those few newspapers that are now learning to reflect the daily life, trials and hopes of their people in vernacular language are fast winning readers.

A quiet young Indian newspaperman, Amitabha Chowdhury, learned investigative reporting on the Mithuwa Journal and returned home to apply this on Jugantar, Bengali language daily in Calcutta.

This last year's winner of the $10,000 Ramon Magsaysay award for journalism and literature told the seminar that within three months after he started meticulous investigative reporting, the circulation of his newspaper jumped 50 per cent, from 60,000 to 95,000.

Liz Taylor and Eddie Fisher will get a divorce. Too bad. It seems only yesterday that they were married. Actually, of course, it was the day before yesterday.

A Houston builder gives the seven astronauts free $24,000 homes. Next orbit report: "Just passed over beautiful Houston. No money down. Wall-to-wall financing. All systems go. Call your broker."

The trouble with doing nothing is that it takes so long.

Now that Teddy Kennedy admits a fellow student took a Harvard exam for him, it's assumed his Senate campaign manager will be the TV quiz show star, Charles Van Doren.

their experience by helping editors in distant communities such as troubled Kerala in South India.

The seminar in Manila was the fourth of its kind in Asia. Earlier gatherings of editors were in Delhi, Lahore and Kuala Lumpur.

At these seminars, editors sit together with their competitors and examine mutual problems from the technical questions of readability to science reporting and column writing. The emphasis is upon sharing know-how and learning from invited specialists while also cultivating professional standards.

The editors have concluded that they have only scratched the surface of opportunities for improving their newspapers. But they also feel that they are leading an uphill struggle in Asia for press freedom.

While the Philippines, Japan, Hong Kong and India enjoy full legal protection for the press, old British-instituted emergency regulations in Malaysia, Singapore and British Borneo still threaten newspapers with requirements for annual registration.

In both Thailand and Burma the lot of newspapermen is improving although the official status of the press is less than ideal.

Elsewhere in Asia IPI faces a most difficult and challenging task in the establishing of a working base for a free press.

To Produce 10 Per Cent

Van Sistine will head the Major Gifts Division which has the responsibility of soliciting some segments of industry, commercial, clubs and organizations and individual gifts pledges. This division is expected to produce 10 per cent of the $3,000,000 goal in St. Elizabeth Hospital modernization and expansion fund campaign.

Hayes said more than 500 volunteers will be needed to staff the campaign organization. He said the campaign is progressing as expected. The Hospital Employees group which was solicited in advance of the public phase of the campaign exceeded its goal by more than 11 per cent.

Menasha Historical Society to Read Family's Civil War Diaries

Moon Clan's Collection Gives Graphic
Accounts of Camp, Battle Adventures

MENASHA — Next Thursday night the Menasha Historical Society through the pages of a collection of letters, clippings and diaries owned by Ralph Moon, 533 Riverway, Menasha, will turn time back to April 6, 1862, to a stretch of uneven plain in Tennessee between the Tennessee River and Owl Creek.

The collection is a part of Moon's family heritage. They were provided by his grandfather, Luther H. Cowan, an officer of Co. B, 45th Illinois Volunteers. It is a remarkable record starting with diary entries when Capt. Cowan's company of the "Washington Lead Mine Regiment" went into camp at Galena on Aug. 30, 1861, and ends with the Warren Independent's obituary on March 31, 1864, for Maj. Cowan, who fell in the May 22, 1863, charge at Vicksburg.

Graphic Accounts

In between are graphic accounts of camp life and battle, and a unique insight into the heart of a father and husband worried and harassed by news from home, and anxious about his three small children, their well being, rearing and education.

One hundred years ago today, Capt. Cowan was ill — laid low apparently from a virulent attack of the flu — when Federal cavalry ran head-on into Albert Sidney Johnston's 40,000 Rebels sweeping into the mouth of the cul de sac of Gen. William T. Sherman's Shiloh Church camp at Pittsburg Landing.

The horrors of the engagement that changed the course of the Civil War are described in letters of the sergeant on whom the command of Co. B fell during the battle, a lieutenant wounded in the engagement and a newspaper eye-witness account by the regiment's assistant surgeon.

Battle's Severity

The sergeant's report of the fate of Co. B indicates the severity of the battle.

He wrote, "I thought I had seen enough of the horrors of war at Donelson; but that was no comparison, Mother. The sights I saw were terrible. God forbid that I should ever witness the same again. We are back again in our old camp, what there are left of us. Capt. Cowan is in the hospital and Lt. Baugher was wounded and I had to take charge of the company. We went into the fight on Sunday, the 45th Co. B with 56 men, and came out at night with only 11 including myself; and when the firing ceased on Monday, I could find only six of our company and four of them wounded."

Lt. Nesbitt Baugher reported his wounds to his father, "The first wound I received was in the right leg, below the knee, passing through the leg, but breaking no bones. This shot knocked me down, and I tried to crawl off the field, when another shot took me (in the back). I thought that was getting no better fast. So I got up the best I could, and whilst hobbling along was hit in the right shoulder. I turned round and defiantly held up my sword, when a bullet split on its edge and entered my face at the cheek bone. Another bullet struck between two of my fingers cutting them slightly. The other wounds are merely indentures from spent balls. None of the wounds are dangerous."

An indication of the type of medical care Wisconsin's Gov. Harvey was attempting to improve when he was drowned at Pittsburg Landing can be seen in the fact that Lt. Baugher was dead 40 days after his experience at Shiloh.

There were four members of the Cowan family in the Civil War other than Maj. Cowan. The letters, to be read Thursday by Jay Joslyn, include a brotherly concern about the four's progress and adventures.

The Warren Independent obituary ends, "Maj. Cowan, it will be remembered, was killed in May of last year at Vicksburg while gallantly leading his Regiment (the 45th) on one of the rebel

Miss Alma Milz Retires After 42 Years at Thilco

KAUKAUNA — Miss Alma Milz, supervisor of the sales order writing department of the Thilmany Pulp and Paper Co., retired after serving the firm for 42 years.

On her last day of work, friends and officers of the firm presented her with a television set.

Miss Milz started in the purchasing section of Thilmany, checking orders and doing typing. From there she moved into the accounting department and later took over a position in the sales department.

Choral Groups to Give
'On the Road to Music'

Pupils at St. Mary Catholic School will travel "On the Road to Music" in a performance at 7:45 p.m. Thursday at the school gym.

Pupils in the 16 classes and choir girls and boys choral group will demonstrate the steps from simple note to three-part note singing. Sister M. Davinus, O.P., music teacher, will direct the program.

Third graders taught by Miss Agnes Tracy and Mrs. Marguerite Eurchul will set the pace for the musical journey with a presentation of "The Happy Wanderer."

The school band conducted by Gerald Jensen will also take part in the program.

Abolishing 103rd Reserves Challenged by Melvin Laird

Post-Crescent Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Congress will not allow the 103rd army reserve division, consisting of reservists from Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa to be abolished, Rep. Melvin R. Laird, R., Marshfield, said today.

The Wisconsin congressman, who Wednesday told the House about Defense Department plans to abolish four national guard and four army reserve divisions, believes now that there is enough indignation among Capitol Hill legislators to prevent the plan.

The House Armed Services Committee has set April 10 as the date to investigate Pentagon handling of military reserves. Laird declared that the house appropriations subcommittee on defense will also take action on the matter, although the date has not been set.

The proposed plan of the Defense Department to "realign" or eliminate some divisions, while at the same time, reactivating others has drawn considerable ire from both Republicans and Democrats.

Laird blasted the plan as being "difficult to understand why such divisions as the 32nd ... were called up while others are to be abolished."

Justice Clark To Speak at State Meeting

Justice Tom C. Clark of the United States Supreme Court will be among speakers at a conference here May 18-19 on selection and tenure of Wisconsin judges.

Approximately 100 Wisconsin leaders from many fields will discuss various ways of choosing judges in Wisconsin and other states. The conference will begin at the Wisconsin Center building 9:30 a.m. May 18, and end after a lunch session on Saturday.

Sponsoring organizations are the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Wisconsin Judicial Council and the Joint Committee for the Effective Administration of Justice, representing several national organizations.

"No single factor has greater influence on the quality of justice administered in the courts of this state — or of any other jurisdiction — than the methods and procedures by which candidates are selected for service on the bench," said a letter inviting leading citizens to take part in the conference.

Purpose of the conference will be to define proper objectives, call professional and public attention to them and suggest a future course of action for Wisconsin.

Riverview Doctor To Participate in Discussion of TB

MILWAUKEE — Dr. John G. Russo, superintendent and medical director of Riverview Sanatorium and General Hospital, will have a key role in discussions of the eradication of tuberculosis at the 1962 annual meeting of the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis Association in the Hotel Pfister here Thursday the WATA said.

Dr. Russo will participate in a town meeting discussion of the concept of eradication of TB following the keynote session Thursday.

Dr. Fred L. Soper, a world leader of communicable disease eradication programs, will open the meeting as keynote speaker Thursday. Practical means of applying the concept of eradication of TB in Wisconsin will be developed throughout the first full day of the meeting.

Vocational Schools to Offer CLU Program

Ten Institutions to Join in Teaching
Five Training Units

Ten Fox River Valley and lakeshore vocational and adult schools have agreed to offer jointly the Certified Life Underwriting program, ensuring that two units of the course will be offered in the area each year.

The schools co-operating in the joint venture are Appleton, Neenah, Menasha, Kimberly, Kaukauna, Oshkosh, Fond du Lac, Green Bay, Sheboygan and Manitowoc.

The CLU program includes five units of work. One unit takes three hours a week for about 40 weeks. At the completion of the five units, students must pass a day-long examination to qualify for certification.

Will Split Costs

The 10 schools agreed to hire an instructor for one day a week every year for as long as enrollment justifies providing the service. Each of the 10 cities will pay 10 per cent of the total cost of the program. Residents of any of the cities may attend the courses for a $2 fee, while non-residents must pay a $25 fee.

The cities have been divided into two circuits.

The location of the course will move from city to city in each circuit, repeating on a four-year cycle. In the Fox Valley circuit, the course will be given in the Fox Cities for the 1962-1963 school year, in Oshkosh the following year, in the Fox Cities the third year and in Fond du Lac the fourth year.

In the lakeshore circuit, it will be offered in Manitowoc in the 1962-1963 school year, in Sheboygan the following year, in Manitowoc the third year and in Green Bay the fourth year.

State aid will equal approximately $15 per year for each student.

5 Units in Program

The five units of the CLU program are 1. fundamentals of life insurance, 2. group insurance, health insurance and pensions, 3. laws, wills, trusts and estates, 4. economics, personal and corporate finances, and 5. business life insurance, ethics and motivational psychology.

In the 1962-1963 school year, Unit 1 will be taught in the Fox Cities circuit and Unit 2 in the lakeshore circuit. According to tentative plans, Units 3 and 4 will be taught in the 1963-1964 school year.

For those taking one unit each year the course would take five years. It would be possible to complete it in three years by attending one full day a week (for two units) for two years. The units do not have to be taken consecutively.

None of the 10 cities have enough students to run their own complete program, Appleton Vocational School director Carl Bertram said.

Bertram estimated that there will be a minimum of 12 students in the Fox Cities class and 16 at Manitowoc next year.

Dr. Vlado A. Getting, University of Michigan School of Public Health, Lansing, will present a new approach to community health services.

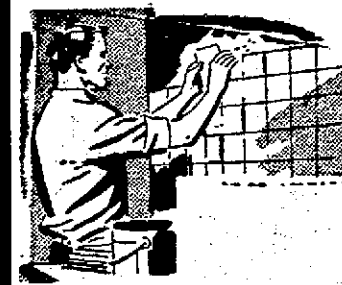

Health agency leaders from neighboring states will examine their own goals and programs in a dialogue presentation at the annual meeting luncheon Friday.

Highlight of the program will be presentation of the WATA Distinguished Service Award to a Wisconsin person for outstanding contributions to the tuberculosis control movement.

New Version of King James Bible Will Have Pictures on Every Page

BY MARY CAMPBELL
NEW YORK (AP)—The New Testament is now being published with pictures on every page. It looks very much like a magazine. Pages are 8 1/2 by 11 inches, with a slick, heavy paper cover. Price is $1. But this is no magazine, no collection of Biblical stories for children. It is the entire New Testament, King James version, with 566 black and white photographs, nine maps and six diagrams.

In keeping with the present trend to make the Bible a book to be read and understood as well as owned, the American Bible Society is making an important contribution with this "New Testament with Pictures." They also are publishing it in Spanish, the second most-used language in this country.

The Gospel of St. Luke, for example, begins with a full-page picture of a boat on the Sea of Galilee. The second page contains a map of Palestine in the time of Christ and short discussions of the history and geography of Palestine and Jerusalem.

"These pictures make Christ's world live for children," says Dr. Gilbert Darlington, consultant to the society.

On the page with the parable of the sower, there is a picture of a man sowing seed. It shows the man's clothing. How his head is protected from the sun, how Society is making an important contribution with this "New Testament with Pictures." They also are publishing it in Spanish, the

Churches Set Up Service for Blind

BY RICHARD H. PYLE
DETROIT (AP)—If you were one of the 7,000 blind persons in this metropolitan area it's a 10 to 1 bet you wouldn't have a job. The chances are even more remote that you would be trained to get around with a cane or a dog.

You would be living in the state that ranks 50th in the use of federal funds for aid to the blind, and in the only U.S. city with more than 600,000 population that has no voluntary service to the blind.

But you might be finding new hope through a new agency called the Blind Service Center, a product of the united efforts of the city's three major faiths—Catholic, Protestant and Jewish.

Builds Fund
In existence only since January, the Blind Service Center has built up a working fund of $6,000 from donations and is commencing a multi-pronged effort to help the sightless.

To the Rev. Raymond C. Ellis, a young Catholic priest who heads the Detroit archdiocese's work with the blind, deaf and mentally retarded, the inter-faith center is fulfilling an aching need.

"Detroit," says he, "is a bad city to go blind in."

The task of the center is to provide practical assistance to the blind—counseling, employment

The Law and You Minors' Contracts Can be Broken in Some Circumstances

Shortly after her graduation out of high school, and only eighteen years old, Joyce was contacted by a man selling pots and pans. Believing that this would be a fine addition to her hope chest, she signed a contract for the purchase of a large set of them.

She soon found that the monthly payments called for by the contract were very hard to meet. She also discovered that a comparable set of pots and pans could be purchased for a much lower price at the local department store.

No Return
Joyce contacted the salesman and asked if she could return the pots and pans and get her money back. He refused, pointing out that she had signed a legal contract. The salesman threatened to sue her if she failed to make the required payments.

Can Joyce be forced to pay for this set of pots and pans?

In this case Joyce will not have to pay. At the time that she signed the contract Joyce was just

Post Office Box 468, Appleton, Wis.

Recently, Lucy a normal 14 month old girl was stricken by scarlet fever and encephalitis. The doctors prognosis: Lucy had a brain damage; she would never have enough intelligence to be a participating member of the family or useful or acceptable in society. That was the darkest hour in her parents lives.

BUT THERE IS HOPE FOR LUCY . . .

now in our community! Soon Plamann School for Retarded Children will take boys and girls like Lucy and train them in the basic skills . . . reading, writing and arithmetic . . . and prepare as many as possible for gainful employment between the ages of seven and sixteen. They will be taught crafts, simple household tasks, how to attend to their basic health needs, and how to occupy their time.

The Shape of Things to come can be seen at the Robert Plamann School for Retarded Children, which is about 70 per cent completed. The school will be given to Outagamie County when it is completed this summer, and will open in September. Outagamie County Citizens for Retarded Children, which is building the school, still needs about $6,000 for the $76,000 structure.

Forgotten Children No Longer
Service Clubs, societies, industry, labor and individuals who care . . . have brought hope in our community to the parents with retarded children . . . they are FORGOTTEN CHILDREN NO LONGER! You too, can take part in the completion of this Plamann School For Retarded Children by making your pledge, donation or sending your check today!

SEND YOUR PLEDGE, DONATION OR CHECK TODAY!

Outagamie Citizens for Retarded Children is a non-profit tax-deductible organization. Your gifts at this time will help us complete this project on schedule.

Veteran Heavyweight In Critical Condition After Knockout

Tunney Hunsaker Undergoes Operation For Hemorrhage

BLUEFIELD, W.Va. (AP)—Veteran heavyweight Tunney Hunsaker, 32, was in critical condition today from the effects of a knockout punch delivered in the 10th and final round of a fight Friday night. He was afflicted with the same type of brain injury that caused the death of former welterweight champion Benny (Kid) Paret in New York this week. Doctors said he had a 50-50 chance for recovery.

Paret, who was to be buried in Miami today, never regained consciousness from the beating he suffered at the hands of Emile Griffith March 24. In contrast, Hunsaker walked to his corner after taking the 10-count and collapsed while being examined by ring physician Dr. I. B. Anderson at nearby Beckley, where the fight was held. His opponent was Joe Sheldon of Cleveland, Ohio. Hunsaker, a former police chief of Fayetteville, W.Va., was rushed to the Bluefield Sanatorium, a distance of nearly 45 miles, and underwent an emergency 2-hour operation by Dr. E. L. Gage, a brain specialist.

Dr. Gage said Hunsaker, a professional four years who also makes his living as an agent for the State Beer Commissioner, underwent surgery for a subdural hematoma hemorrhage on the right side of the brain, which had caused paralysis to the boxer's right side.

Similar Injury Paret suffered a similar injury after his 12th round beating from Griffith. Dr. Gage said he had observed only a half dozen cases in the last 10 or 12 years in which both hemorrhage and paralysis occurred on the same side.

Hunsaker was given vitamin injections and oxygen but "he has shown no need for blood," Dr. Gage said. "Unless there are further indications, we are through with surgery."

Mrs. Hunsaker, who collapsed when she first entered the ambulance at Beckley to be at her husband's side, said Dr. Gage told her after the operation there were signs of movement on Tunney's right side.

"But we are not encouraged too quickly," the doctor told her. "He could be worse by morning. We are walking a tightrope."

No Newsman Present A newsman asked Mrs. Hunsaker if the Paret case entered her mind as she awaited word on her husband's condition.

"As soon as I realized he was unconscious, I thought of Paret and how similar it seemed," she replied. "Mrs. Hunsaker said that only a few days ago a sports-caster had asked her husband for his views on the Paret case, and he replied, 'You can get killed in a traffic accident just as easily.'"

There apparently were no news-men present at the fight in Beckley. But some spectators said Hunsaker and Sheldon had mixed it freely. Hunsaker was stunned in the third, and took an eight-count in the next round. He made a strong comeback, however, and

Jones' Pinch Double Tops Indians, 4-3

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves edged the Cleveland Indians 4-3 in an exhibition Friday, squeezing by on Mack Jones' two-run pinch double in the ninth.

The victory gave the Braves a 9-16 slate for the training season, which ends with a game against the Los Angeles Dodgers tonight at San Diego, Calif., and a split doubleheader Sunday at San Diego and Long Beach with separate squads participating.

Jones, batting for winner Warren Spahn, connected off south-paw Don Rudolph with three on and one out.

Spahn and Barry Latman pitched the first eight innings. Latman departed after Joe Adcock led off the ninth with a single. Frank Funk then came in for Cleveland, threw a wild pitch and gave up a single to Frank Bolling. Funk was jerked after loading the bases by walking Bob Vecker. Jones then hit his game-winning double.

Henry Aaron doubled for two Milwaukee runs in the fifth.

Spahn allowed six hits and gained his first triumph against four losses. Henry Fischer pitched the final inning and was touched for one hit.

Cleveland's first two runs came in the second after Spahn walked Willie Kirkland, Woody Held beat out a roller and Bubba Phillips doubled.

Jerry Kindall sacrificed for the Indians' other run of the inning. Spahn was reached in the eighth for a single by rookie Ty Cline. Chuck Essegian sacrificed and John Romano hit a scoring double to right center.

Latman, who yielded five hits, retired ten men in a row before the decisive ninth.

Before the game Spahn said the Arizona air was too light and rarefied for his liking.

"I sn't so much you can't get your breaking stuff to break," he said. "But the curve or screwball breaks slower than in a heavier or muggy atmosphere. You don't get the full effect of a curve... The hitter out this way has all the advantage. He lifts one in the air and it just keeps on traveling."

Bob Buhl sprained his ankle in a pre-game workout Friday and there is some doubt if he can pitch as scheduled Sunday. Buhl didn't think the injury was too serious.

Manawa began Legion ball as an independent last year. Little Chute, after a leave of absence from the league, was voted back in. Other Central Division teams are Appleton, New London, Waukegan, Clintonville, Kaukauna and Kimberly.

The division will play two rounds of games, totaling 14 games apiece. An all-star team will play the division champion at the latter's park. A curfew of 11 p.m. was set for all Central Division night games.

The state Legion baseball commissioner, Bob Beltrone, points out that an important rule change will be in effect. All boys who do not attain their 19th birthdays before Sept. 1 this year will be eligible to play. This represents an age increase of eight months from former rules and will enable many boys to return for one more season of Legion baseball.

President Kennedy Received a season baseball pass from Joe Cronin, president of the American League at the White House Friday. Kennedy is scheduled to throw out the first ball in Washington at the American League opening game between the Senators and Detroit Monday.

Terrors' Nordgren Wins Mile Title in FRVC Indoor Meet

Oshkosh's Steinhilber Cops 2 Firsts; Ships Take Team Crown

Appleton High School's Phil Nordgren won the mile run in the first annual Fox River Valley Conference indoor track meet at Manitowoc Friday night.

Nordgren, the 1961 FRVC outdoor champion, covered the 10-lap track in the exceptionally fast early-season time of 4:38.7. He accounted for the only Terror first place.

Host Manitowoc captured team honors, as expected, with a 48-point total. Sheboygan North was second, Oshkosh third, South fourth and Appleton fifth.

point total. Sheboygan North was second, Oshkosh third, South fourth and Appleton fifth.

2 Double Winners

The meet's only double winners were Oshkosh's Bill Steinhilber and North's Bill Genzler. Steinhilber was the most prolific scorer, as he won the high jump (at 6 feet) and the pole vault (at 11 feet, 2 inches) and placed second in the 60-yard low hurdles.

Genzler took the honors in both the high hurdles and low hurdles. Oshkosh's Mike Fritz won the 60-yard dash in 6:45 seconds.

Third places for AHS were taken by Gary Hietpas, in the 880; by Mike Woehler, in the high jump (5-9); and by the 1-mile relay team of Dave Schilling, Joe Getschow, Jim Slezak and Dick Bunn.

Appleton's Gene Sipple placed fourth in the shot put, with an effort of 46 feet, 5 1/4 inches. Terrors placing fifth were Woehler, in the high jump; Dave Schlegelmilch, in the mile; and the 4-lap relay team of Jerry Bishop, Jack Shepard, Dick Bunn and Schilling (1:20.4).

With only two laps to go, Nordgren trailed South's Ron Gress.

Cousy Signs Coaching Pact

Will Take Over BC Job After One More NBA Season

NEWTON, Mass. (AP) — Bob Cousy, stellar playmaker of the Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Association signed a three-year contract Friday to coach basketball at Boston College.

The contract becomes effective at the end of the 1962-63 season, college authorities announced.

Cousy, 33, has been an outstanding player in the NBA for the past 12 years after a brilliant career at Holy Cross.

Only a few weeks ago, he agreed to play one more year with the current NBA champion Celtics. However, at the time he said he might not stay beyond another season in professional basketball.

Insurance Business

Cousy has an off-season insurance business with headquarters in Worcester. In addition, he operates a boys' camp during summer months.

Cousy succeeds Dino Martin, coach for the past nine years, who resigned to become director of sports at Kirtland Country Club, Willoughby, Ohio. Martin has been tennis pro at Willoughby during his coaching career at Boston College.

Freshman basketball coach Frank Power will act as interim coach at BC next season, relinquishing the reins to Cousy when the NBA season ends in 1963.

Arnold Palmer Hits Sizzling 66, Leads Masters Tourney

Gary Player 2 Shots Behind At Meet's Halfway Mark

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—The 1962 Masters Golf Tournament looked today like a rerun of an old movie thriller on television—Arnold Palmer vs. Gary Player going into the final rounds.

Last year at the midway point, these two kings of golf were tied for the lead at 137. This time Palmer is 136 after a sensational 66 in Friday's second round. Player at 138 after a conservative 71.

Although anything can happen in golf, this Masters is viewed at this point as a two-man battle between Palmer and Player, and let the rest of the competitors fall where they may.

So thoroughly have Palmer and Player dominated this tournament the last two years that it is almost as though it were a match-play event with only two participants.

Little Fires 68

Their closest challengers going into the third round today were U.S. Open champion Gene Littler, who rode a sterling 68 to a 139 total, and little Gardner Dickinson Jr., whose 71 gave him 141. But they were forgotten pursuers.

All the attention was on the Palmer-Player duel. Player seemed not the least disheartened that he lost his first round lead and fell two shots behind Palmer. In fact, the opposite seemed true.

The small but sinewy South African star, hoping to become the first man ever to win the Masters back-to-back, said he preferred to be two shots behind Palmer because that forces him to abandon his usual conservative style.

"You can't afford to play conservatively on this course against a man like Palmer. He is always attacking."

And he paid Palmer this high compliment: "When I'm behind

Californian, 20, Blasts 728 Set In ABC Tourney

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Two youngsters competing for the first time in the American Bowling Congress Tournament stole the show from the established stars in their debuts.

Chuck Sisk, 20, a student at Sacramento, Calif., City College until he dropped out this semester, took second place in the Classic Division singles with a 728 series Friday.

The 5-foot-4, 130-pounder had games of 248, 228 and 252 and was only 16 pins short of the leader.

Doug Sabby, 16, a high school junior, rolled a 679 series to lead Minnesota Door of Spring Lake, Minn., to the best regular division score Friday, 2998.

Bob Korn and Ray Pety of Detroit's John F. Ivory team tied for third in the Classic doubles with 1333. Korn also took sixth place in both the singles and all-events with totals of 683 in the singles and 1946 in the all-events.

Catalano Enterprises of Downey, Calif., shot a 2992 in its first Classic Division block. Durox of California from Los Angeles rolled a 2920 in its Classic debut.

Downes Predicts KO in Showdown Title Fight

BY MURRAY ROSE
BOSTON (AP)—Britain's Terry Downes, co-holder of the world middleweight championship, feels he has Paul Pender's number and will knock out the American in their third title fight tonight.

"I'll get him after the eighth round," predicted the cocky Cockney, who is recognized as king of the 160-pound set by Massachusetts, New York and Europe. Gene Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, is considered the champion by the National Boxing Association.

Despite the 25-year-old Londoner's supreme confidence, the oddsmakers here had the 31-year-old ex-fireman from Brookline, Mass., an 8-5 favorite in the 15-round television (ABC-TV, 10 p.m. EST) bout at the Boston Garden. A crowd of 10,000 and a gross gate of about $70,000 is likely.

Slapping Jabs Well remembered here is the deft surgery performed by the clever American on the game Briton's nose in their first scrap 15 months ago. The rangy Pender's snapping jabs and fast rights split the bridge of Downes' nose and sent blood flowing from the gash like burgundy from a shattered bottle. Twelve stitches were required to close the wound after the referee halted the blood-letting in the seventh round.

More difficult to understand is Pender's quitting on the stool after the ninth round of their return fight at London last July 11. The American was cut over the left eye but had just completed a good round, and was about even with Downes at that point.

Downes said "he quit on me before I could knock him out. Those body blows were wearing him down."

Writers Pick Mantle, Mays as Top Choices For 1962 MVP Honors

Yankees, Dodgers Named Pennant Favorites for '62

BY JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Mickey Mantle, Willie Mays, Frank Lary and Sandy Koufax are picked for top individual honors this year in the annual pre-season poll of the Baseball Writers Association by The Associated Press.

Mantle, the New York Yankees' switch-hitting slugger, was a run-away choice for the 1962 Most Valuable Player prize in the American League and Mays, the San Francisco Giants' dazzling center fielder, edged teammate Orlando Cepeda for MVP pick in the National League.

Right-hander Lary of the Detroit Tigers and left-hander Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers were named as the probable top winning pitchers in the majors.

In the predicted order of finishes in the pennant races, the Yankees were selected to repeat as American League champions in a landslide and the Dodgers got the nod in a tight NL scramble.

Picked by 88
Mantle, already winner of two MVP awards and a close second to Roger Maris of the Yanks last year, was the pre-season choice for this season's MVP in the AL by 88 of the 109 writers who voted. Maris was not named on a single ballot. Al Kaline of the Tigers received 10 votes, Jim Gentile of the Orioles 4, Harmon Killebrew of the Twins and Elston Howard of the Yankees 2, and Rocky Colavito of the Tigers, Norm Cash of the Tigers and Brooks Robinson of the Orioles 1.

Mays barely won out as the likely MVP choice in the NL, with 34 votes to 32 for Cepeda. Ken Boyer of the Cards placed third with 14, Hank Aaron of the Braves received 10, and Roberto Clemente of the Pirates 6. Last year's MVP, Frank Robinson of the Reds, tied with Vada Pinson of the Reds and Bill White of the Cards at four votes, and Maury Wills of the Dodgers got one.

Lary, whose record was 23-9 last year, had a comfortable lead over southpaw Whitey Ford of the Yankees in the voting for top winner among AL pitchers. Lary collected 41 votes and Ford, winner of 25 of 29 decisions in 1961, received 23. Others named were Jim Bunning of the Tigers (11), Bill Stafford of the Yankees (10), Dick Donovan of the Indians (7), Don Schwall of the Red Sox (4), Juan Pizarro of the White Sox (4), Mill Pappas of the Orioles (3), Chuck Estrada of the Orioles (3), Roland Sheldon of the Yankees (2) and Steve Barber of the Orioles (1).

Koufax, 18-13 last season, paced the voting in the NL pitching prospects with 19 to 14 for Milwaukee's perennial ace, Warren Spahn. Lary Jackson of the cards was next (13), followed by Don Drysdale of the Dodgers (12), Jim O'Toole of the Reds (11), Johnny Podres of the Dodgers (11), Mike McCormick of the Giants (7), Joey Jay of the Reds (7), Ernie Broglio of the Cards (6), Juan Marchal of the Giants (6), Don Cardwell of the Cubs (3) and Ray Sadecki of the Cards (1).

Other honor scores were hit by Ellie Fahrenkrug, 190; Pat Schulz, 197; Lois Strick, 509; Verona Gloudemans, 508; Ruth Sanders, 507, and Joan Goffard, 199.

Vitus Vande Wetering posted a 567 series to take honors in the Hollandtown Country League at Van Abel's Alleys.

Keller Implement won three games on the final night to finish as league champs with a 58½-25½ record. Other honor scores were hit by Ken Kempen, 555, and Bud Vande Wetering, 553.

Ar You Planning to Build or remodel your present home this year? If you are, Lake Plumbing & Heating company invite you to ask for free estimates on your plumbing and heating needs. The firm is located on the corner of route 114 and 10 at Waverly Beach and the telephone number is RE 3-2104.

Many families in the Fox Cities are planning to build their dream house this year. Many others are planning to make their present home just a "little dreamier."

Lake Plumbing and Heating company would like to be able to help you and Carl H. Bauer, owner and manager, said that free estimates would be cheerfully given.

All Set to Go in New Quarters is the Home Appliance company at 307 W. College avenue. The picture above shows before and after the remodeling job done on the new building and location. The Home Appliance is now located where the Valley Sporting Goods used to be.

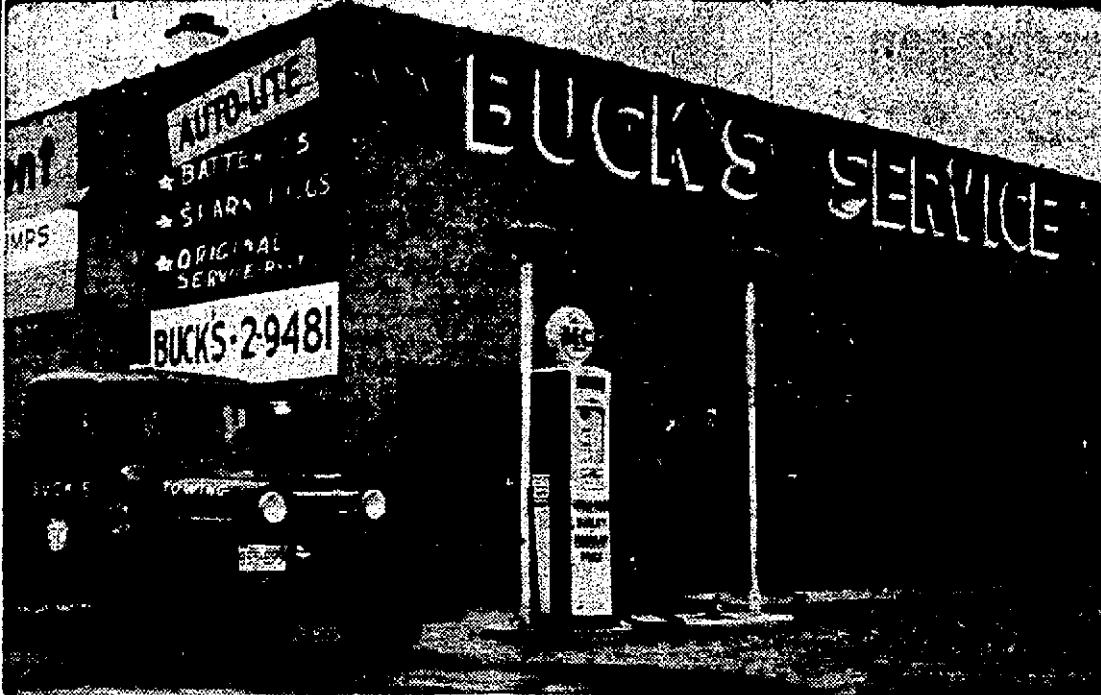

The Home Appliance company, now located at 307 W. College avenue, are happy with the remodeled quarters. The new spot gives Home Appliance, until recently located next to the Appleton State Bank, two and a half times its former floor space, according to Ed Hoersch, owner.

Inside, Home Appliance customers will find a sparkling new decor in the famous Frigidaire pastel tones and modern lighting of daylight intensity.

Home Appliance company has been in the appliance business in Appleton, representing Frigidaire and RCA products, for nearly 17 years.

On the first floor of the new building, customers will find large displays of Frigidaire and Admiral kitchen appliances, a special TV and stereo department, and many shelves of small appliances. About halfway back on the main floor is the customer service desk.

The second floor of the large building will be utilized as showrooms for one of Appleton's largest displays of used trade-in appliances. Downstairs in the store is a large and well-equipped TV and appliance repair department. The firm will hold its grand opening in the near future, and is looking forward to welcoming customers, old and new, in its vastly expanded and brand new location.

Spring Fever Will Soon Draw Motorists out on the highways and Buck's Service advises car owners to ready their automobiles now for increased driving. Spring servicing is a must for really safe trips in the open country, Buck says. The station is located at 112 Langley Blvd., just off S. Commercial street, Neenah, or call PA 2-9481 for prompt and dependable service.

Spring is a happy time of the year. The highway calls for motorists to explore the wonders of nature in the wide open spaces. But, before taking any of these Sunday jaunts, Buck's Service says that you should have your car checked and overhauled for really safe spring driving.

Drive into Buck's and put your car in the hands of Ralph (Buck) Klenke. He will know just what to do to see that your car is ready for extra driving. The transmission will be checked, brakes will be checked and put in good working order, wheels will be balanced and packed in the front wheel bearings for easy spring driving.

Don't forget that you can get B. F. Goodrich tires and tubes at Buck's. They have all sizes and grades and will give you a good trade-in on your old tires. Buck said that Goodrich tires are guaranteed to last until the tread has worn off. It is the original tire on many General Motors cars, showing the faith that automobile manufacturers have in the Goodrich tire. The powerful, highspeed, delicately adjusted automobile of today, would be impossible without the cushioning of safe dependable tires.

And how safe are your shock absorbers, Buck asks. Shock absorbers are as important to safety as they are to comfortable riding. They stabilize your car, keep wheels from bouncing off the road, prevent erratic steering and side sway.

Buck advises that you replace your worn shocks with new Mono-Matics. They're the only shock absorbers with automatic adjustment for all roads and loads.

Pick up and delivery is an added service at Buck's. They will also do towing, if the need should arise. Put the number down so you can call Buck's Service at PA 2-9481.

Court Justice Warns U.S. May Lose Freedom Fight

William Douglas Cites Need For More Teachers Working In Underdeveloped Nations

BY ROY F. VALITCHKA II
Post-Crescent Regional Editor

STEVENS POINT — The United States has literally priced itself out of a market in which it could best fight the threat of Communism.

The United States has been building pre-fabricated houses while the Russians have built a pre-fabricated society they can export anywhere.

The Russians have exploited the ideological conquest of the world beyond our deepest imagination.

Expressions such as these held state college educators' interest for more than an hour.

Friday night as U. S. Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas discussed Communism versus freedom in Asia.

He spoke at a banquet for the Association of Wisconsin State College Faculties meeting at Stevens Point State College. The college board of regents were guests at the dinner and are meeting on the campus today.

Left Challenge
Douglas left his audience with a feeling of foreboding and distress at affairs of the world. He also left his audience with a course and a challenge.

His course lays in redoubling efforts as a nation to begin an organized program to combat the Communists through education, foreign language education and sending educators to backward countries of the world. He urged an affiliation in a "grand way" with nations of the world for an exchange of scholars and teachers on a scale never before attempted.

Douglas did not make his concluding statements without first laying out in detail the problem this nation faces.

Douglas outlined the development of Russia in the last 41 years and that of Red China. Before the 1960s are over 15 nations will have the "bomb" — and among them Red China, he said.

We have come to a time for prevention of war. "That will require the greatest political management of which we are capable," the justice said. Control is a problem of staggering dimensions. A rule of law must be developed quickly to take the place of war. This, he said, we cannot do when in the United Nations we keep out nations we do not want.

Roman Koenigs, state parks chief, has concluded an agreement with the state highway department for the provision of $53,000 worth of paved parking lot space in the lower area of the park and hopes to launch construction early this spring.

Other Construction
Construction will begin a little later on the camp ground within the park, and he hopes before summer to put under construction contract the plans for a bath house, shelter area and additional toilet facilities.

Meanwhile the boat marina is virtually completed and will be available for use with the new season, although some auxiliary construction including lighting remains to be completed, he said.

Improvements within the park have been at an accelerated scale lately because of the provision for a better state financing program for the parks program on the whole, and the substantial contributions of private funds toward the High Cliff project by a park improvement association consisting of private citizens.

The park was designed to accommodate the increasing pressure for recreational facilities from the growing Fox River Valley urban population center.

Diver Plugs Sewer Break

Split Endangers Basements Along Keyes Street

MENASHA — Several basements along Keyes Street were threatened by water Friday afternoon when an overflow sewer line was punctured during a sewer construction project in the Lawson Canal near the George Banta Co.

City Engineer M. J. Noth said a diver while underwater noticed the accident and immediately plugged the 14-inch overflow line with rock and dirt. Permanent repairs to the line will be made Monday, Noth added.

The main sewer syphon line crossing the canal, 10 inches in diameter, was undisturbed.

The backup was from water pressure in the canal above the break in the line.

The city is installing a 16-inch syphon under the canal, to supplement the other two lines, as part of the city's efforts to halt sewer backups in several isolated areas on the island. The Central Contracting Corp. crew has laid 80 of the 100 feet of the new syphon.

Holy Name Men to Hear Parish Pastor

COMBINED LOCKS — The Rev. Bernard Timmers, pastor of St. Paul Catholic Church, will be guest speaker for a communion breakfast of Holy Name Society members after the 8:30 a. m. Sunday mass.

Men are to assemble at the church for corporate communion prior to the breakfast session.

Cancer Drive

WINNECONNE — Miss Nell Moran and Mrs. J. J. Grimes co-chairmen of the cancer drive met with 25 volunteers Thursday to open a two week campaign. In addition to soliciting funds the workers will distribute educational literature.

Winnebago Airport May Get Motel

Chicago Architectural Firm Discusses Proposal With County Aviation Group

OSHKOSH — Details for possible port-motel facilities and is advisable leasing of Winnebago County Airport property for a motel site. E. G. Steinhilber said two people were discussed Friday by the county board aviation committee last year and have expressed interest in building a motel at the airport.

The architectural firm will draw up recommendations based on a 40 unit motel as to unit rental and land leasing in lieu of property taxes. Taxes could not be assessed because of the land being owned by the county.

Probable site for a motel would be northeast of the present terminal building.

Electrical contracts for landing lights on the east-west runway will have to be re-bid. Committee Chairman Alvin Stafford reported.

'FAA Goofed'
He said the FAA "goofed" in specifying medium intensity landing lights in the original specifications and high intensity lights now have to be installed.

The change could cost the county about $6,500 more—$50 per light and then $500 to have each light wired and installed. However, the committee is investigating getting 80 government surplus high intensity lights which would reduce the added expense to only the installation cost.

The committee also approved leasing two parcels of land near College at Four Points of the east-west runway extension to Philip Cowan for $1,300 for the summer.

Fire Damages Machine Shop In Freedom

FREEDOM — An early morning fire Friday caused extensive damage to the Madden Machine Shop located in the Town of Freedom.

The volunteer fire department, alerted at 1:30 a. m. Friday by a motorist who spotted the flames, fought the blaze for five hours. Cause of the fire was undetermined, said Fire Chief Ed Vandenberg.

Vandenberg estimated damages to the steel building "into the thousands of dollars." The machine shop is owned by James Madden. There was no one in the building at the time of the fire and no one was injured. Vandenberg said the machine shop included living quarters but they were vacant.

Sturgeon Bay Firm Wins Port Contract

Roan Salvage Co., Sturgeon Bay, was the apparent low bidder for improvements to Menominee Harbor, located in Wisconsin and Michigan, when the Chicago Army Engineer District opened bids Thursday afternoon. The Roan firm's bid was $403,300. Government estimate for the work was $412,020.

Improvements will cover general rehabilitation of the harbor, including removal of some of the existing timber walls and concrete which would interfere with new construction.

New work will include furnishing and placing some 85,900 square feet of steel sheet piling, some 1,400 cubic yards of concrete and some 110,000 pounds of reinforcing steel. About 3,200 cubic yards of stone fill also will be placed.

Other bidders included C. R. Meyer and Sons Co., Oshkosh, $459,803.30 and McMullen & Fitz Construction Co., Manitowish, $486,685.

The Kaukauna Veterans of Foreign Wars have decided to take over sponsorship of the Bonnie Lassies, formerly the Little Chute Baton Twirling Corps, to enable the group to participate in more parades and other events. Representatives of the two groups signing an agreement are Giles Hietpas of the Bonnie Lassies, at left, and Arthur Gandt of the VFW. Watching, front to rear, are Kathy Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wood; Barbara Zornow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Zornow; Little Chute; and Mary Lou Nechodom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nechodom, all of Little Chute.

Rebel Bell

Battle of Shiloh Has Meaning To Waushara County Community

BY SERLING SORESENSEN

Named to honor the leader of its company of Civil War volunteers, Capt. Edward Saxe, Saxeville is to join in the commemoration of the centennial of the Civil War.

"And with good reason does Saxeville remember the war between the states of 100 years ago, since it is daily reminded of it through the voice of its Rebel bell. The Saxeville Community Improvement Association is at work on plans to raise a tablet-marker recounting the romantic history of the bell, which hangs in the belfry atop its two-story red brick schoolhouse.

The bell, which once summoned field slaves on the Mississippi cotton plantation of Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederate States of America, has for some 90 years called generations of youngsters to the classrooms.

Battle of Shiloh
Long gone are the valiant troopers who shouldered arms in response to the call of President Lincoln, but 100 years after its "capture," the Rebel bell remains as an authentic memento of the North-South conflict.

During the Battle of Shiloh of 1862, Unionists in a foray south of Corinth, Miss., took the bell from the Davis plantation. This prize of war later fell into the hands of troopers of Capt. Saxe's company.

Packed in sawdust in a "hardtack" barrel and sent by rail to Berlin, the bell was carted to Saxeville by ox-team. In a civic ceremony it was hung in the belfry of the old log-built school. When the present school was built, the rebel bell was placed under a rooftop cupola. There it remains.

The tale of the rebel bell has been told in song, story. Its legend has been embellished over the years. There appears to be no doubt of the bell's Mississippi history nor that it was "appropriated" from the plantation of the man who served as president of the confederacy.

The marker-tablet will be set up in the village green, an area fronting the village post office, between the states, the community will display a large photo of fire station.

Oscar Petersen, of the improvement association, says the marker will duplicate those at historic points of the Wisconsin State Historical Society. He will attempt to interest that organization in the project to herald Saxeville's claim to reflected Civil War honors.

Additionally, the civic organization will soon print a pamphlet telling of the summer resort donated by Mrs. Grace Weiss, a woman who lived in the village for many years. The pamphlet will also tell of the long time prominent streams, lakes and fir-bowered Saxeville merchant. A formal ceremony honoring the bell and the marker are scheduled July 4.

Improvements Scheduled for High Cliff Park

State to Build Parking Lot, Shelter Area

MADISON — High Cliff State Forest Park on the northern shore of Lake Winnebago, more than a decade in the making, will soon take its place as one of the better recreational tracts among the state parks and recreational forests, according to progress reported by the state forests and parks division.

Roman Koenigs, state parks chief, has concluded an agreement with the state highway department for the provision of $53,000 worth of paved parking lot space in the lower area of the park and hopes to launch construction early this spring.

Other Construction
Construction will begin a little later on the camp ground within the park, and he hopes before summer to put under construction contract the plans for a bath house, shelter area and additional toilet facilities.

Meanwhile the boat marina is virtually completed and will be available for use with the new season, although some auxiliary construction including lighting remains to be completed, he said.

The park was designed to accommodate the increasing pressure for recreational facilities from the growing Fox River Valley urban population center.

Three-Apartment Home Damaged By Smoke, Fire

A three-apartment home at 1020 E. Vine St. was damaged by smoke and fire early Friday afternoon when a fire of undetermined origin broke out in a clothes closet.

Appleton firemen said the ceiling and walls of the closet and clothing in the closet were damaged by fire and the entire inside of the house received smoke damage. One wall of the closet burned through to a kitchen in an adjacent apartment.

The home, owned by Fred Heineman, 217 Green Bay St., is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Chosa, Mrs. Grace Gaffney and John Duda.

Neenah Lions Club Nominates Officers

NEENAH — Donald Harrington was nominated for president of the Neenah Lions Club at its meeting this week. Election will be at the April 17 meeting.

Also nominated were Francis Olson, first vice president; James Ayres, second vice president; Norman Fredrick, third vice president; Charles Larson, secretary-treasurer; Marvin Spielbauer, tail twister; John Ingman, assistant tail twister; John Martin, lion tamer; Carl Nielsen, assistant lion tamer; Robert Rector and Elmo Steinkne, one-year holdover directors, and Virgil Christensen and John Dachel, two-year directors.

Sixteen Speakers Representing a variety of fields discussed their work and answered questions of students at a Careers Day held Friday by the Xavier High School girls' department.

Discussing the armed forces are, from left, Miss Ladonna M. Walsh, U.S. Navy Wave recruiter from Milwaukee; Fran Vander Linden and Mary Maxon. Other fields represented were speech therapy, dental hygiene, teaching, religious life, beautician's work, home economics, journalism, surgical nursing, airline stewardess, modeling, work in the sciences, social work and office careers.

Tipsy Driver Takes Swing At Patrolman

3 Arrested Fined Total of $479; Lose Licenses

Three men who pleaded guilty of drunken driving were fined a total of $479 and had their drivers' licenses revoked for one year. Two of the men refused drunkometer tests.

Police pushed a Greenleaf man's stalled car off railroad tracks 20 minutes before the train went through and a Kimberly man became abusive and took a swing at a patrolman while being taken to jail. A third man was arrested by Oshkosh police, who said he was speeding on Main Street, Oshkosh.

John G. Wald, 43, 506 Margaret St., Kimberly, was fined $200 Friday by Judge Gustave J. Keller after Wald was found asleep in his car at 7:25 p. m. Thursday on County Trunk K east of Combined Locks. Outagamie Patrolman William Block said Wald was cooperative on the way to the jail, but refused to enter the courthouse. He had to be forced into the jail elevator. Block said that Wald tried to kick him in the groin and then took a swing at him. Wald had to be put into his cell by Block, Sgt. George Elise, Jailor Robert Moore and the examining doctor.

Railroad Tracks
James C. Finnerty, 40, route 1, Greenleaf, was fined $175 or 50 days in jail by Judge Keller. Finnerty was arrested at 1:30 a. m. Friday by Kaukauna and Outagamie County police after his car was found on railroad tracks at McCarty Crossing.

Robert Gutjahr, 32, 618 Broad St., Oshkosh, Friday admitted drunken driving and was fined $129 by County Judge Arnold J. Cane.

Gutjahr was arrested by Oshkosh Police at 9:55 p. m. Thursday after they saw him speeding and driving erratically on Main Street.

County Judge to Be Speaker for Holy Name Men

KAUKAUNA — County Judge Raymond P. Dohr will speak on "Last Wills and Testaments" at a breakfast meeting of the Holy Name Society of St. Mary Church after the 7 a. m. Sunday mass.

The men will receive communion in a body prior to the session. Judge Dohr served as corporation counsel for Outagamie County until being named to the judgeship.

Fined for Drunkenness

Ronald H. Miller, 26, 309 N. Division St., Friday was fined $35 by Judge Gustave J. Keller on a charge of drunkenness. Miller was arrested by Appleton police April 4 after causing a disturbance in a W. College Avenue restaurant.

KHS Students to Set Up 1962-63 Class Schedule

KAUKAUNA — Programming of students at Kaukauna High School is next week with freshmen through juniors assigned times to meet with advisers to set up class schedules for 1962-63.

Parents have the opportunity to meet with the student and adviser to help work out the schedules. Incoming freshmen will report to assigned rooms after regular classes Tuesday for assistance with programming. Approximately 272 city youngsters are expected to enroll for the fall freshmen class with additional students to arrive from outlying areas recently attached to the school district.

3 Apartments Looted in Chilton Theft

Money, Valuables Taken in Daylight Burglaries, Police Say

CHILTON — About $60 and some jewelry were reported missing from three apartments looted in a series of daylight burglaries Friday.

Apparently entered during the noon hour were the apartments occupied by Edward Bechlem, Louis Brandt and Mr. and Mrs. John Michaels. All are above the A & P store on W. Main Street.

Police Sgt. Dan Albedyll, who investigated the burglaries, said $20 to $25 in coins were taken from a desk in the Brandt apartment. Stolen from Bechlem was a valuable wrist watch and ring. About $38 was taken from the Michaels apartment. None of the entries were forced Albedyll said. He believes the burglars gained admittance by use of master keys.

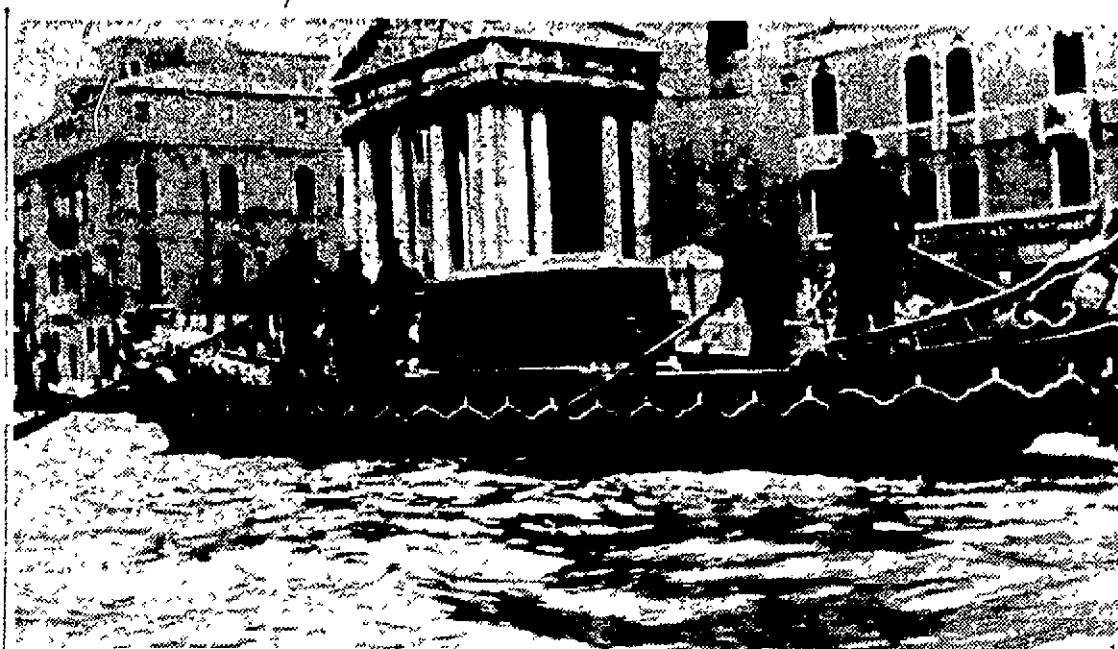

In all three apartments there was evidence the thieves searched for more loot but apparently left hurriedly. Police believe the Chilton burglaries are linked with similar break-ins at Kiel and Elkhart Lake.

At Kiel a doctor's office was entered during the noon hour. The thieves made off with some money. At Elkhart Lake another doctor's office was entered. Reported missing was morphine.

Hobby Club Contest Winners Announced

Youngsters from Appleton and Kimberly are Hobby Club contest winners in the animal heads puzzle of March 21. Their prizes are Six-Gun puzzles which Columbian Campy Dick will send to them by mail.

The winners are Greg Scholtz, 9, 57 Garden Court, David Reitzner, 12, 716 W. Hawes Ave., and Cheryl Young, 12, 1519 N. Rexford St., all of Appleton; Steven Van Hout, 11, 445 Railroad St., and Sally Van Hime, 8, 436 N. Main St., both of Kimberly.

This Somewhat Somber, but beautiful, scene was taken by Sherman Klein, route 2, Hortonville, while a member of the 1960 Post-Crescent tour. It shows a "hearse" transporting a coffin to its final resting place along a major water route of Venice. Members of the Post-Crescent Holiday In Europe tour will return from the 22-day voyage with many lasting "memories" photographed by eye and camera.

Vandals Damage Cars In City Parking Lot

Vandals struck five cars in a city parking lot Friday night, causing extensive damage to engines and accessories.

Appleton police said the cars were damaged between 8 and 10:30 p. m. The cars were parked in Lot 7 near the Appleton Vocational and Adult School.

Damaged were cars owned by:

Roger W. Wolf, 1717 Crooks St., Kaukauna, John E. Reuter, 125 Idlewild, Kaukauna, Charlene B. Judkins, Capitol Drive, Appleton, Duane A. Matz, route 2, New London, and Ronald Van De Hey, route 2, Kaukauna.

Wolf's car had the roof caved in, a continental tire kit smashed, a license plate torn off, radiator hoses, ignition wires and air cleaner torn off, and the windshield wipers broken.

On Reuter's car, the ignition wires were torn loose, the aerial was broken, and the distributor and air cleaner were smashed.

The windshield of the Matz car was smashed when the car's air cleaner was thrown against it. The ignition wires were pulled loose.

The Judkins car had the ignition wires pulled, the glass was smashed on the dashboard, wipers were broken, a sun visor damaged, the rear view mirror was smashed and a heater control was broken.

A rear view mirror was smashed on the Van De Hey car.

College Avenue Crash Injures Driver, 2 Riders

Three people were injured at 3:30 p. m. Friday in a chain reaction car crash at College Avenue and Lawe Street.

Injured are Daniel O. Rochon, 21, 1403 N. Racine St., Appleton, chest injuries, a cut lip and a bruised left leg; Mrs. Elroy Grumwald, 720 Monroe St., Little Chute, shock, and Jerry Hurley, 17, 507 E. Spring St., a cut head.

Police said cars driven by Elroy Grumwald, 24, and Lawrence Schreiter, 17, 1505 W. College Ave., were stopped at the intersection heading east on College when the Schreiter car was struck from behind by the Rochon car. It in turn hit the Grumwald car.

Hurley was a passenger in the Schreiter car.

Rochon was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital by Larry's Ambulance. He was treated and released, hospital authorities said. The others were advised to see a doctor.

Holy Cross Home-School Unit Picks Officers; Make Plans

KAUKAUNA — Officers were elected at a meeting of the Home-School Association of Holy Cross School with Mr. and Mrs. Gene LaBorde named to fill the post of president.

Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Jeffrey will serve as vice president; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fleming, secretary; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tomazevic, treasurer, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Siebers, historian.

Plans were made for "Hot Dog Day" to be held April 26 at the school with Mrs. Donald Tomazevic as chairman. A report on the basketball team which finished with a 20-3 record was given and Marvin Hooymann was appointed new scoutmaster for Holy Cross Boy Scout Troop 31.

Guest Speaker Sister Lucy, science teacher at St. John School, Little Chute, Iowa, and later took his M.A. degree in physical education from the University of Iowa.

Appleton Elks Newspaper Gets National Honor

Stag Lines, the newspaper of Appleton Elks Lodge No. 337, has been awarded second place in the national house organ contest among lodges over 750 members, according to Raymond C. Max, exalted ruler.

This category includes the lodges in the United States in all of the metropolitan cities. Stag Lines also was given second place in 1961 and received several honorable mentions in earlier years.

E. L. Biseix, news editor of the Appleton Post-Crescent, is editor of Stag Lines, which is printed by the J. M. VanRooy Printing Co. A commemorative plaque will be awarded Appleton Lodge at the Grand Lodge convention in Chicago in July.

Chief Applicants Will Take Tests Monday Afternoon

Applicants for Appleton police chief and fire chief will take written examinations at the vocational school at 1 p. m. Monday.

Eighteen applicants will take the test for police chief, and nine for fire chief.

The city is going to hire two new chiefs because the former chiefs retired.

About 28 persons requested application blanks for police chief, but 10 did not return them. Thirteen asked for fire chief applications, and did not return them.

Most applications are from residents of Wisconsin, but there are a few from out of state.

Christian PTA Sets Election of Officers

KAUKAUNA — Election of officers will be held at a meeting of the Christian Parent-Teacher Association of Trinity Lutheran School at 7:30 p. m. Monday in the school hall.

Kurt Peterman, principal of St. Paul Lutheran School, Appleton, will speak on "Christian Education as a Career." Refreshments will be served by mothers of kindergarten students with Mrs. Ray Prellwitz as chairman.

Petty Irritation Absent From Post-Crescent European Tour

Everything Arranged So Minor Details Won't Clutter Trip's Fun

"Taking an individual trip to Europe, while not overly complicated, does present many details for the traveler that can get in the way of complete and easy enjoyment of all that is to be seen and done. Not the least of the frustrations are such things as keeping track of the varying exchange rates, figuring out when, whom and how much to tip, arranging for guides and interpreters at proper fees, keeping track of one's luggage, and many other problems that can be irritating to the uninitiated.

Going on a holiday to Europe by means of such a tour as the "Holiday In Europe," sponsored by the Appleton Post-Crescent, can be as easy as a jaunt into Canada . . . even easier. Your transportation is all arranged well ahead of time. You need never be concerned about money transactions or exchange rates; fine hotel accommodations are ready for you in every city you visit, guides and interpreters arranged for, your luggage appears as if by magic when needed. There is little to do but the thing you want to do, and every precious moment is spent enjoying the sights uninterrupted by distracting details.

These are some of the reasons why so many persons . . . young married couples, farmers, teachers, single persons who dislike traveling alone, so fully enjoyed the Post-Crescent tour in 1960. Even business men and women used to handling details, found the tour more pleasant when they discovered so many details taken care of for them.

Another lasting result of the tour, according to those who accompanied Charlie House on the 1960 trip, was the cheery camaraderie they experienced and the opportunity to make life-long friends. Many who went on that trip still meet periodically to reminisce about the wonderful things they did and saw. Many of them expressed delight in being able to travel with persons from their own area . . . even from their hometown.

So it will undoubtedly be, on the grand "Holiday In Europe" tour scheduled to leave Appleton July 7 and return July 28, after 22 glorious days traveling through eight European countries including Denmark, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, France, Holland, England and Scotland.

Travel arrangements for the tour have been made by Mary Ehlen Travel, Inc., 215 E. College Ave., Appleton, Bennett Tours, Inc., and Scandinavian Airlines System. The same expert combination arranged the 1960 tour. Thus members of the 1962 tour are assured of the same experienced attention to those details and little "extras" which make such a trip so complete.

For just $1,098, members of the tour will receive complete, luxurious transportation, Appleton to Appleton. They will fly over and back across the Atlantic on fast, comfortable DC8 jets of the Scandinavian Airlines System. Included, too, will be accommodations at fine hotels, two meals a day, tips and guide fees, handling of luggage and other "extras."

Full details of the wonderful Holiday In Europe tour may be had by contacting Mary Ehlen Travel, Inc., Appleton.

Here, the tourist will obtain information regarding those few things that he must do and have for himself.

Among the first will be to get a passport. The really simple procedure will be fully explained. The tour member will learn that no visas will be necessary.

Inquiry will also reveal that

Police Investigating Acts of Vandalism

LITTLE CHUTE — Village police are investigating acts of vandalism to St. John Grade School and a garage and automobile owned by Reginald Hermesen, 424 S. Pine St., which occurred either Wednesday or Thursday night.

A school window, the garage window and a rear car window were broken by steel ball bearings being either thrown or shot through the glass, according to police. The garage damaged is near the school and police believe youngsters playing on the school parking lot may have caused the damage.

Around Home

For the benefit of the four children of Philip Retson, the Post-Crescent wants to assure them that their daddy was re-elected Tuesday as county supervisor from Appleton's 14th Ward.

The newspaper, in its election stories Wednesday, failed to mention that Retson was returned to office by a vote of 498. He was unopposed.

The Retson children, along with their parents, followed the election results Tuesday night, but didn't find their father's name in Wednesday's paper. Why not, they wanted to know?

Most concerned were Chip (Nicholas), 14, and Nancy, 13. The other two children are Tom, 6, and Barbara, 4.

Holy Name Society to Hear Oshkosh Priest At Breakfast Meeting

KAUKAUNA — The Rev. Harry Berryman, assistant pastor at St. Peter Catholic Church, Oshkosh, and chaplain to the Catholic Student Center at Oshkosh State College, will be speaker for a father-daughter breakfast of Holy Cross Catholic Church after the 7 a. m. Sunday mass.

The breakfast is sponsored by the Holy Name Society and men and their daughters are to receive communion prior to the program. Topic of the talk will be "Love, Life and Christ."

5 Teen-Agers Hurt in Crash

Girl Has Teeth Knocked Out in 3-Car Intersection Accident

OSHKOSH — Five Oshkosh teen-agers were injured in a three-car collision on U.S. 45-175 intersection near the Oshkosh Country Club south of Oshkosh at 1:15 a.m. today. Injuries were believed of a minor nature.

Winnebago County police said the accident involved cars driven by Dennis F. Kohl, 22, 917 Fredrick St., Oshkosh; James S. Leuthold, 20, 1838 Mt. Vernon St., Oshkosh; and Thomas V. Hable, 18, 936 W. 11th St., Oshkosh.

Kohl was going south and Leuthold had just backed out of a driveway and was facing north on the west side of the highway. Hable was backing out of the driveway and was partly in the road when the right rear of his car was struck by the Kohl car. Kohl's car glanced off and hit the Leuthold car while the Hable car spun around and knocked down 25 feet of fence.

Passengers in the Kohl car who were injured were Kay Kaloekner, 19, 634 High Ave., Oshkosh; scratch on leg, Barbara Erion, 19, 1422 Western Ave., Oshkosh; bump on left leg, and Arlene Leichtfuss, 19, 534 Evans St., Oshkosh, sore wrist. Patricia Smith, 19, 430 Jefferson St., Oshkosh, a passenger in the Leuthold car, had several teeth knocked out and Karla Miller, 18, 1017 Nebraska St., Oshkosh, a passenger in the Hable car, received bumps on the left leg.

Kindschi Backed For Congress

FORT ATKINSON (AP) — Ivan Kindschi, a 41-year-old Marshall dairy farmer, was given endorsement in his bid for Congress Friday night at the Second District Republican caucus.

Action came after Lt. Governor Warren Knowles, Philip Kuehn and Wilbur Renk—candidates for the party's gubernatorial nomination—addressed the group and state chairman Claude Jasper as-sailed Rep. Robert Kastemeier, D-Watertown, for proposing "unilateral concessions" to Red China and Communist Russia.

Another struggle just coming into the headlines, he said, is that between China and India. "If in 15 years we look back, we'll see that the nation that moves ahead will take all of Asia with her."

Douglas said India has taken on a tremendous rebuilding program through social reforms. "I was appalled in the 1940s when I visited India. I never saw filth and superstition piled so deep." Today much has been changed by schooling for village life of a select group that has reached 400,000 of the nation's 600,000 villages. Nehru also has improved farming methods and is bringing up the annual wage... about $60 a year.

Knowles said, he said, is at stake in Red China. Russia has become an affluent nation and is cashing in on American foreign policy. Our policy of "don't rock the boat," defensive measures and the idea that spending $100 million a year in underdeveloped nations will halt communism's spread are food for the Russian mill, he said. Our defensive attitudes have led nations to believe we support the regime in power. Our method of giving money has led to the crumbling of the idea of democracy in some countries. Our policies, Douglas said, have put us in the impossible position of underwriting feudal regimes.

Russia has made central Asia a showplace of communism and its ends by building model cities where filth and poverty once existed. This is shown to members of underdeveloped nations. These people are told the Russians did this in 41 years. Why wait, the Russians then ask, for the United States to take 165 years.

There are "haves and have nots" Douglas said. Russia is a have. In comparing Russia, we cannot compare her to us but to other nations of the world. The demand of the idea of freedom is astronomical. These people want freedom as they want bread."

He closed by telling the educators we have wasted 15 years. "We must redouble our efforts and wage an all-out ideological battle for democracy."

Russian advances have been great.

Americans have brainwashed themselves into underestimating the Russians, he said. Sputnik was a rude awakening.

The Russians probably are 10 years ahead of us in pure science, Douglas said. Russia sells to other nations the idea all in Russia can go to school. It can provide any nation with education and medical care, two very powerful things, he said.

"The Russians have exploited the printing press in a way we never dreamed. It has priced us out of the publication market."

Russia last year printed books in 68 languages while the United States printed but 27. Russian books go out for about a cent each under nearly three times as many titles as the United States.

The Reds, he said, have exploited language and broadcast to nations 12 and 14 hours a day in that nation's language.

The Reds, he said, in 41 years planned and saw the world in conquest, not by armies but by ideas. It educated the people, got its parties elected, met the people on their own terms and provided doctors, engineers and trained personnel in all fields.

Where in this country is there a plan, Douglas asked. How many prepare in our state colleges to go overseas and work? How many guide-nice directors in our school systems interest youths in languages and foreign work?

How many teachers are we going to supply or are we going to let the Russians do it, he asked. "There is more to be done. That's where you teachers come in. You teachers are trustees of our democracy and youth. We have Abraham Lincoln. He means more to an underdeveloped nation than he ever did to us. He means equality, not independence so much, but the ability to be able to stand on one's own two feet and be recognized as having a spark of the divine."

He said the McCarthy era was one when talk of revolution branded one as Communist. "Why don't we write a book on how to revolt as the Russians did?" We didn't start and arrive full-fledged, we fought. There will be dozens of revolts. The question is how can we make them for a free society.

The question facing us is not whether democracy will be saved but will democracy be born. The demand of the idea of freedom is astronomical. These people want freedom as they want bread."

Russian advances have been great.

Americans have brainwashed themselves into underestimating the Russians, he said. Sputnik was a rude awakening.

The Russians probably are 10 years ahead of us in pure science, Douglas said. Russia sells to other nations the idea all in Russia can go to school. It can provide any nation with education and medical care, two very powerful things, he said.

"The Russians have exploited the printing press in a way we never dreamed. It has priced us out of the publication market."
